Gb84 A Novel:

GB84 David Peace, 2014-11-04 Never before published in the U S GB84 will be launched in 2014 alongside two other novels by David Peace The Damned and Red or Dead In taut and gripping prose that often feels like the relentless text of a surveillance report GB84 tells the story of the British coal miners strike of 1984 including the actual bombings riots and protests that brought the country to the brink of civil war Called by its author fiction based on fact the book depicts a real life 1984 more violently dystopian than even Orwell imagined Slowly starving strikers find themselves pitted against a prime minister Margaret Thatcher determined to crush them a police force willing to use infiltration and violence to achieve her will and equally hungry scabs who need a job Mixing real events and characters with the voices of the increasingly desperate strikers the book becomes a stirring saga of courage against overwhelmingly sinister forces and paints a searing and haunting portrait of events that changed the course of British history

s Satin Island 2015 supplement the systematic approach and encourage future research by providing overviews of reception and theoretical perspectives Digging the Seam Ian W. Macdonald, Simon Popple, 2012-11-15 The 1984 5 Miners Strike was one of the most important political events in British history It was a bitter dispute that polarised public opinion divided nation and families alike and the results in terms of the destruction of centuries of industrial and cultural tradition are still keenly felt The social and political consequences of this dispute which have resonated for the past quarter century have been subject to detailed analysis and reflection The consequences for the arts and popular culture are less clearly mapped This book attempts to begin to redress this imbalance and signal the importance of popular cultural activity both during and after the strike The essays that appear in this book represent diverse and multidisciplinary responses to the questions raised by the strike and its relationships to a broad range of cultural forms which include literature film photography music theatre television drama and documentary painting public art and heritage interventions These responses are organised around four themes that map the interrelatedness between cultural representation cultural intervention and historical memory The first deals with the idea of mining culture and pre strike representations in popular sentiment film and literature The second examines the role cultural forms played directly in the context of the strike as a means of political commentary activism and fund raising The third looks at subsequent cultural renderings or reconstructions of the strike and the final section looks at the current process of memorialisation and commemoration The book draws together a range of voices from academia heritage cultural and mining backgrounds and offers both a historical perspective on the range of cultural activities in the course of the dispute and subsequent readings and re readings It aims both to provide a record of cultural intervention and stimulate new dialogues and perspectives The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction, 1945-2010 David James, 2015-10-06 The Cambridge Companion to British Fiction since 1945 provides insight into the critical traditions shaping the literary landscape of modern Britain Mining the Meaning Katy Shaw, 2012-03-15 This innovative study provides an exciting challenging and accessible critical introduction to cultural representations of 1984 5 and analyses the ways in which these representations articulate an essential dialogic exchange of issues central to both the coal dispute and the development of literary and cultural studies over the past twenty five years Focusing closely on the politics of form the study interrogates the significance of the mode means and function of strikers writings as well as alternative representations of the conflict offered by established writers musicians artists and film makers in the wake of the coal dispute These representations are worthy of study due to the critical interventions they offer their evidence of the cultural pressures and forces of not only the strike period but the post strike years of industrial and labour change and their remarkable contribution to existing social political and literary histories Engaging with these works many of which have never been subject to previous academic analysis the study enables twenty first century readers to re conceptualise paradigms of received wisdom concerning 1984 5 The significance of the competing representations offered by these very different cultural modes as they engage in a wider battle to author the conflict is central to this study Through a detailed analysis of these representations as well as the socio cultural contexts of their production and dissemination this book explores a range of attempts to capture the sensibilities of late twentieth century society and contributes to an ongoing debate regarding cultural representations of this period in British history Influenced by critical theory the text is the first secondary resource concerning cultural representations of the 1984 5 UK miners strike available to the reading public the world over

Violence and Dystopia Daniel Cojocaru, 2015-09-18 Violence and Dystopia is a critical examination of imitative desire scapegoating and sacrifice in selected contemporary Western dystopian narratives through the lens of Ren Girard s mimetic theory The first chapter offers an overview of the history of Western utopia dystopia with a special emphasis on the problem of conflictive mimesis and scapegoating violence and a critical introduction to Girard s theory The second chapter is devoted to J G Ballard s seminal novel Crash 1973 Chuck Palahniuk s Fight Club 1996 and Rant 2007 and Brad Anderson s film The Machinist 2004 It is argued that the car crash functions as a metaphor for conflictive mimetic desire and leads to a quasi sacrificial crisis as defined by Girard for archaic religion The third chapter focuses on the psychogeographical writings of Iain Sinclair and Peter Ackroyd Walking the streets of London the pedestrian represents the excluded underside of the world of Ballardian speed The walking subject is portrayed in terms of the expelled victim of Girardian theory The fourth chapter considers violent crowds as portrayed by Ballard s late fiction the writings of Stewart Home and David Peace s GB84 2004 In accordance with Girard s hypothesis the discussed narratives reveal the failure of scapegoat expulsion to restore peace to the potentially self destructive violent crowds The fifth chapter examines the post apocalyptic environments resulting from failed scapegoat expulsion and mimetic conflict out of control as portrayed in Sinclair s Radon Daughters 1994 Margaret Atwood s The Handmaid s Tale 1985 and Oryx and Crake 2003 and Will Self s The Book of Dave 2006
