later this model crumbled Older people streamed back into the workforce and free market policymakers pushed the burdens of aging back onto older Americans and their families We now confront an old age mired in contradictions ever longer lifespans and spiraling health care costs 401 k s and economic precarity unprecedented opportunity and often disastrous instability As the population of older Americans grows Golden Years urges us to look to the past to better understand old age today and how it could be better tomorrow Reference Catalogue of Current Literature ,1906

Social Death Lisa Marie Cacho,2012-01-01 Winner of the 2013 John Hope Franklin Book Prize presented by the American Studies Association Social Death tackles one of the core paradoxes of social justice struggles and scholarship that the battle to end oppression shares the moral grammar that structures exploitation and sanctions state violence Lisa Marie Cacho forcefully argues that the demands for personhood for those who in the eyes of society have little value depend on capitalist and heteropatriarchal measures of worth With poignant case studies Cacho illustrates that our very understanding of personhood is premised upon the unchallenged devaluation of criminalized populations of color Hence the reliance of rights based politics on notions of who is and is not a deserving member of society inadvertently replicates the logic that creates and normalizes states of social and literal death Her understanding of inalienable rights and personhood provides us the much needed comparative analytical and ethical tools to understand the racialized and nationalized tensions between racial groups Driven by a radical relentless critique Social Death challenges us to imagine a heretofore unthinkable politics and ethics that do not rest on neoliberal arguments about worth but rather emerge from the insurgent experiences of those negated persons who do not live by the norms that determine the productive patriotic law abiding and family oriented subject Jersey Bulletin ,1920 Making Imperial Mentalities J. Mangan,2012-05-04 This book discusses the way in which those born into the British empire were persuaded to accept it often with enthusiasm The study compares the perceptions of people at home in the dominions and in the colonies Across the diversity of imperial territories it explores themes such as the diverse nature of political socialisation the various agents and agencies of persuasion reaction to the experience of dominance by dominant and dominated the paradoxical impact of the missionary and the subversive role of some women It also considers the significant issues of colonial adaptation resistance and rejection and the post imperial consequences of imperialism The Relevance of Social Science for Medicine L. Eisenberg,A. Kleinman,2012-12-06 The central purpose of this book is to demonstrate the relevance of social science concepts and the data derived from empirical research in those sciences to problems in the clinical practice of medicine As physicians we believe that the biomedical sciences have made and will continue to make important contributions to better health At the same time we are no less firmly persuaded that a comprehensive understanding of health and illness an understanding which is necessary for effective preventive and therapeutic measures requires equal attention to the social and cultural determinants of the health status of human populations The authors who agreed to collaborate with us in the writing of this book were chosen on the basis of their experience in designing and executing research on health and health services and in teaching social science concepts and methods which are applicable to medical practice We have not attempted to solicit contributions to cover the entire range of the social sciences as they apply to medicine Rather we have selected key approaches to illustrate the more salient areas These include social epidemiology health services research social network analysis cultural studies of illness behavior along with chapters on the social labeling of deviance patterns of therapeutic communication and economic and political analyses of macro social factors which influence health outcomes as well as services Film and Radio Discussion Guide ,1952 Social Sciences and Humanities Index ,1916 The
