Perspectives on Multigrade Teaching Linley Cornish,Matshidiso Joyce Taole,2021-10-25 This book contains the results of research projects carried out in relation to multigrade teaching in Australia and South Africa Research in multigrade contexts is not commonly reported and rarely in book form The research results have implications for multigrade teachers government education personnel and university teacher educators The book also contains chapters with practical advice for multigrade teachers including examples of multigrade teaching used in an Australian seven grade class kindergarten to grade 6 Other chapters contain suggestions for practical strategies a multigrade teacher can use to reduce the workload involved in planning for multiple grades Very little is published in the area of multigrade teaching yet the number of multigrade schools worldwide is huge Developed countries still have a significant proportion of multigrade schools commonly one fifth to one third of all primary schools or classes Despite decades of centralisation of schools and expansion of transport networks the number of these schools remains high mostly in rural areas Developing countries established multigrade schools in rural areas in order to achieve the UN Millennium Development Goal of Universal Primary Education Yet specific training to teach a multigrade class remains virtually non existent in initial teacher education programs worldwide The value of this book is thus to report specific research carried out in multigrade contexts but also to provide practical help for multigrade teachers This help is needed as the teachers strive to achieve the UN Sustainable Development Goal of a quality education through helping their students develop the skills and behaviours required for 21st century learning

Grid-locked African Economic Sovereignty Victor Warikandwa,Artwell Nhemachena,2019-02-06 The emergent so called Fourth Industrial Revolution is regarded by some as a panacea for bringing about development to Africans This book dismisses this flawed reasoning Surfacing how investors are actually looting and plundering Africa how the industrial internet of things the gig economies digital economies and cryptocurrencies breach African political and economic sovereignty the book pioneers what can be called anticipatory economics which anticipate the future of economies It is argued that the future of Africans does not necessarily require degrowth postgrowth postdevelopment postcapitalism or sharing solidarity economies it requires attention to age old questions about African ownership and control of their resources Investors have to invest in ensuring that Africans own and control their resources Further it is pointed out that the historical imperial structural creation of forced labour is increasingly morphing into what we call the structural creation of forced leisure which is no less lethal for Africans Because both the structural creation of forced labour and the structural creation of forced leisure are undergirded by transnational neo imperial plunder theft robbery looting and dispossession of Africans this book goes beyond the simplistic arguments that Euro America developed due to the industrial revolutions Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 3) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-08-20 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Volume 3 allows readers to locate organizations by subjects or by fields of activity and specialization and includes an index to Volumes 1 through 3
