Offers That People Love: The Ultimate Sales Strategy Guide Ahmed Musa,2025-03-11 An irresistible offer is the key to driving sales and growing your business Craft Irresistible Offers That People Love shows you how to create offers that your customers simply can t refuse This book guides you through the process of identifying what your target market truly values and how to package your products or services in a way that speaks directly to their desires With step by step instructions on pricing positioning and promoting your offer you ll learn how to create a sales strategy that attracts attention builds excitement and generates consistent revenue Whether you re selling a product service or digital course this book will give you the tools to create offers that not only sell but convert like crazy , The Love Object Edna O'Brien,2015-05-12 Collected here for the first time are stories spanning five decades of writing by the short story master Harold Bloom As John Banville writes in his introduction to The Love Object Edna O'Brien is simply one of the finest writers of our time The thirty one stories collected in this volume provide among other things a cumulative portrait of Ireland seen from within and without Coming of age the impact of class and familial and romantic love are the prevalent motifs along with the instinct toward escape and subsequent nostalgia for home Some of the stories are linked and some carry O'Brien s distinct sense of the comical In A Rose in the Heart of New York the single mindedness of love dramatically derails the relationship between a girl and her mother while in Sister Imelda and The Creature the strong ties between teacher and student and mother and son are ultimately broken The Love Object recounts a passionate affair between the narrator and her older lover The magnificent mid career title story from Lantern Slides portrays a Dublin dinner party that takes on the lives and loves of all the guests More recent stories include Shovel Kings a masterpiece of compression distilling the pain of a lost exiled generation Sunday Times and Old Wounds which follows the revival and demise of the friendship between two elderly cousins In 2011 Edna O'Brien s gifts were acknowledged with the most prestigious international award for the story the Frank O'Connor Short Story Award

The Love Object illustrates a career's worth of shimmering potent prose from a writer of great courage, vision, and heart. The most striking aspect of Edna O'Brien's short stories, aside from the consistent mastery with which they are executed, is their diversity. John Banville

Can You Not Breathe So Loudly? Fran Preston, You know you're in a long-term relationship when the small things like the way your partner chews, hums, or even breathes start to feel like existential crises. In Can You Not Breathe So Loudly, Fran Preston explores the hilarious and often surprisingly endearing side of long-term love, where tiny annoyances become the soundtrack of your daily life. From the moment you realise you've developed a list of quirky grievances and how they somehow become your personal mission to fix to those bizarre fights over things that could never possibly be the real issue, this book reveals the ridiculous, relatable, and deeply human side of being in a relationship for the long haul. With Fran's trademark wit, relatable observations, and moments of unexpected tenderness, Can You Not Breathe So Loudly is a celebration of love's messy, imperfect nature and the unspoken truth that sometimes loving someone means tolerating or at least laughing at their most irritating habits. Because love isn't about perfection, it's about figuring out how to live together through the little things, even when you're convinced they're going to drive you mad.
