B. Ogunseitan, 2010-08 Be Afra Be a frater Be a brother Be our brother s keeper Love the Brotherhood was the message of Beloved Afra for which he was crucified 500 000 years ago on a continent named after him AFRICA There are more things in heaven and earth than are dreamt of in our philosophy science and religion Life is not a happenstance The Berlin Act 1885 the Biafran War 1967 1970 June 12 1993 Sep 11 2001 the election of Barack Obama as the 44th President of the USA or any other event in life is not a happenstance This is demonstrated in Be Afra Volumes 1 the law of karma reincarnation free will and other aspects of the cosmic law Each root race has a divine purpose and from the beginning was endowed with divine love wisdom and power to fulfill that purpose Each had the knowledge of the cosmic law Be Afra draws on sacred writings If Yrb legends and deep analysis of Yrb language to demonstrate that the black race had knowledge of the Everlasting Gospel the Teaching that should keep mankind free from ignorance or defiance of the Law Ignorance of that Law is no excuse We are who we are and where we are by series of decisions we took at the Y junctions of life Beloved Great Divine Director Manu of the seventh the incoming root race said Perhaps we have been a bit timid ourselves or should I say conservative and dignified in not employing more spectacular methods to acquaint mankind with the wonderful product which we have to offer After all blessed ones we are marketing divine freedom to the earth and conveying it to individuals every day yet we are seldom seen or heard in the marketplace of life Perhaps the shouting from the housetops through the multitudes of antennas reaching out into the ethers shall one day convey a greater measure of heaven s law to the earth We shall see Pearls of Wisdom Vol 8 S No 21 dated May 23 1965 The Institutes of Biblical Law Vol. 1 R. J. Rushdoony, 2009-11-16 To attempt to study Scripture without studying its law is to deny it To attempt to understand Western civilization apart from the impact of Biblical law within it and upon it is to seek a fictitious history and to reject twenty centuries and their progress The Institutes of Biblical Law has as its purpose a reversal of the present trend it is called Institutes in the older meaning of the that word i e fundamental principles here of law because it is intended as a beginning as an instituting consideration of that law which must govern society and which shall govern society under God To understand Biblical law it is necessary to understand also certain basic characteristics of that law In it certain broad premises or principles are declared These are declarations of basic law The Ten Commandments give us such declarations A second characteristics of Biblical law is that the major portion of the law is case law i e the illustration of the basic principle in terms of specific cases These specific cases are often illustrations of the extent of the application of the law that is by citing a minimal type of case the necessary jurisdictions of the law are revealed The law then asserts principles and cites cases to develop the implications of those principles with is purpose and direction the restitution of God s order The Poetic Writings Of Weba Vol.1 : A Poetic Journey Through Love, Loss, and Beauty William Anderson,2013-09 Within this book contains the real heartfelt emotions of a writer collected over the years All poems and songs within have been inspired by people in my life and through events in my life that triggered these words I write about the beauty I see around me while others blink a shy eye Christian Apologetics Past and Present (Volume 1, To 1500) William Edgar,K. Scott Oliphint,2009-08-24 An unprecedented anthology of apologetics texts with selections from the first century AD through the Middle Ages Includes introductory material timelines maps footnotes and discussion questions The apostle Peter tells us always to be ready to give a defense to anyone who asks us to account for our hope as Christians 1 Peter 3 15 While the gospel message remains the same such arguments will look different from one age to another In the midst of a recent revival in the field of apologetics few things could be more useful than an acquaintance with some of these arguments for the Christian belief through the ages This first of two proposed volumes features primary source documents from the time of the early church 100 400 and the Middle Ages 400 1500 Featured apologists include Aristides Justin Martyr Irenaeus Tertullian Origen Athanasius Augustine Anselm and Thomas Aquinas The authors provide a preface to each major historical section with a timeline and a map then an introduction to each apologist Each primary source text is followed by questions for reflection or discussion purposes The Book Of Heaven (Volumes 1 to 36) Luisa Piccarreta,2023-03-08 In every act of one who lives in the Divine Volition he pronounces the Fiat there and forms of it so many divine lives How he gives himself into the power of the creature and lets her do that which she wants with him Difference that passes between one who lives in him and between one who is resigned I am always between the arms of the divine Fiat and oh how I feel the need of his life that breathes beats circulates in my poor soul Without him I feel that all dies for me the light dies sanctity strength even heaven itself as if it might not belong to me anymore Instead as I feel his life all rearises in me The light re arises with its beauty that vivifies purifies and sanctifies My own Jesus re arises with all his works Heaven re arises which the holy Volition encloses within my soul as within a sanctuary in order to make it all mine So that if I live in his Will everything is mine and nothing

Edwards, Jr.,2010-09-01 A History of Preaching brings together narrative history and primary sources to provide the most comprehensive guide available to the story of the church's ministry of proclamation Bringing together an impressive array of familiar and lesser known figures Edwards paints a detailed compelling picture of what it has meant to preach the gospel Pastors scholars and students of homiletics will find here many opportunities to enrich their understanding and practice of preaching Volume 1 appearing in the print edition contains Edwards's magisterial retelling of the story of Christian preaching's development from its Hellenistic and Jewish roots in the New Testament through the late twentieth century's discontent with outdated forms and emphasis on new modes of preaching such as narrative Along the way the author introduces us to the complexities and contributions of preachers both with whom we are already acquainted and to whom we will be introduced here for the first time Origen Chrysostom Augustine Bernard Aquinas Luther Calvin Wesley Edwards Rauschenbusch Barth all of their distinctive contributions receive careful attention Yet lesser known figures and developments also appear from the ninth century reform of preaching championed by Hrabanus Maurus to the reference books developed in the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries by the mendicant orders to assist their members preaching to Howell Harris and Daniel Rowlands preachers of the eighteenth century Welsh revival to Helen Kenyon speaking as a layperson at the 1950 Yale Beecher lectures about the view of preaching from the pew Volume 2 contained on the enclosed CD ROM contains primary source material on preaching drawn from the entire scope of the church's twenty centuries The author has written an introduction to each selection placing it in its historical context and pointing to its particular contribution Each chapter in Volume 2 is geared to its companion chapter in Volume 1's narrative history Ecumenical in scope fair minded in presentation appreciative of the contributions that all the branches of the church have made to the story of what it means to develop deliver and listen to a sermon A History of Preaching will be the definitive resource for anyone who wishes to preach or to understand preaching's role in living out the gospel This work is expected to be the standard text on preaching for the next 30 years says Ann K Riggs who staffs the NCC's Faith and Order Commission Author Edwards former professor of preaching at Seabury Western Theological Seminary is co moderator of the commission which studies church uniting and church dividing issues A History of Preaching is ecumenical in scope and will be relevant in all our churches we all participate in this field says Riggs from EcuLink Number 65 Winter 2004 2005 published by the National Council of Churches

The Mysteries of London (Vol. 1-4) George W. M. Reynolds, 2020-04-10 The Mysteries of London in 4 volumes is a penny blood classic There are many plots in the story but the overarching purpose is to reveal different facets of life in London from its seedy underbelly to its over indulgent and corrupt aristocrats The Mysteries of London are considered to be among the seminal works of the Victorian urban mysteries genre a style of sensational fiction which adapted elements of Gothic novels with their haunted castles innocent noble damsels in distress and nefarious villains to produce stories which instead emphasized the poverty crime and violence of a great metropolis complete with detailed and often sympathetic descriptions of the lives of lower class lawbreakers and extensive glossaries of thieves cant all interwoven with a frank sexuality not usually found in popular fiction of the time
