Female Sexuality David Shade:

The Secrets of Female Sexuality Unapologetic Brutally Honest Truth about Sex That Women Secretly Wish You Knew But Can't Tell You David Shade, 2007-08 The Secrets Of Female Sexuality The Secrets of Female Sexuality Be the Masterful Lover Women Crave David Shade, 2009-09-01 Shade reveals the truths hidden behind social programming and explains the female mind with perfect clarity A good guy equipped with these truths is far more powerful than any bad boy could ever comprehend The Erotic Word David M. Carr, 2005-02-24 Historically the Bible has been used to drive a wedge between the spirit and the body In this book David Carr argues that it can and should do just the opposite Sexuality and spirituality Carr contends are intricately interwoven when one is impoverished the other is warped Social Work and Child Sexual Abuse David A Shore, Jon Conte, 2016-01-28 Here is an indispensable book highlighting information on the problem of child sexual abuse for anyone concerned with the welfare of young children Focusing on the social worker's role in responding to the abuse of children this highly practical volume assesses the state of knowledge about sexual abuse It includes reviews of the historical context in which sexual abuse takes place and sheds light on issues surrounding the professional's responses to sexual abuse alternative models of sexual abuse treatment programs and practice knowledge developments The contributors have also addressed a number of clinical issues including family treatment and social work treatment at a juvenile court as well as the role of the courts and the problem of sexual abuse and sexual education in child caring institutions Zombies and Sexuality Shaka McGlotten, Steve Jones, 2014-09-24 Since the early 2000s zombies have increasingly swarmed the landscape of popular culture with ever more diverse representations of the undead being imagined A growing number of zombie narratives have introduced sexual themes endowing the living dead with their own sexual identity The unpleasant idea of the sexual zombie is itself provocative triggering questions about the nature of desire sex sexuality and the politics of our sexual behaviors However the notion of zombie sex has been largely unaddressed in scholarship This collection addresses that unexamined aspect of zombiedom with essays engaging a variety of media texts including graphic novels films television pornography literature and internet meme culture The essayists are scholars from a variety of disciplines including history theology film studies and gender and queer studies Covering The Walking Dead Warm Bodies and Bruce LaBruce's zombie porn movies this work investigates the cultural political and philosophical issues raised by undead sex and zombie sexuality Reclaiming Female Agency Norma Broude, Mary D. Garrard, 2005-04-11 Reclaiming Feminine Agency identifies female agency as a central theme of recent feminist scholarship offers 23 essays on artists issues from the Renaissance to the present written in the 1990s after The Woman Question: Social issues Elizabeth K. Helsinger, Robin Ann Sheets, William R. Veeder, 1983 Women and Sexuality in America Nancy Ann Sahli, 1984 Contains 1684 references to literature printed in English during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Includes books pamphlets and periodical articles Emphasis on professional literature in medicine psychiatry sociology history and women's studies excludes popular literature and biographies Chronological and topical arrangement Entries give bibliographical information and detailed annotations Author title subject indexes Political Worlds of Women Mary Hawkesworth, 2018-04-19 Political Worlds of Women provides a comprehensive overview of women's political activism comparing formal and informal channels of power from official institutions of state to grassroots mobilizations and Internet campaigns Illuminating the politics of identity enmeshed in local national and global gender orders this book explores women's creation of new political spaces and innovative political strategies to secure full citizenship and equal access to political power Incorporating case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Americas Mary Hawkesworth analyzes critical issues such as immigration and citizenship the politics of representation sexual regulation and gender mainstreaming in order to examine how women mobilize in this era of globalization Political Worlds of Women deepens understandings of national and global citizenship and presents the formidable challenges facing racial and gender justice in the contemporary world It is an essential resource for students and scholars of women's studies and gender politics Bad Habits John C. Burnham, 1993 Seeks to discover why so many good people engage in activities that many including themselves consider bad finding a coalition of economic and social interest in which the singleminded quest for profit is allied to the values of the Victorian saloon underworld and bohemian rebelliousness Partial Justice Nicole Rafter, 2017-07-05 Contemporary Research on crime prisons and social control has largely ignored women Partial Justice the only full scale study of the origins and development of women's prisons in the United States traces their evolution from the late eighteenth century to the present day It shows that the character of penal treatment was involved in the very definition of womanhood for incarcerated women a definition that varied by race and social class Rafter traces the evolution of women's prisons showing that it followed two markedly different models Custodial institutions for women literally grew out of men's penitentiaries starting from a separate room for women Eventually women were housed in their own separate facilities a development that ironically inaugurated a continuing history of inmate neglect Then later in the nineteenth century women convicted of milder offenses such as morals charges were placed into a new kind of institution The reformatory was a result of middle class reform movements and it attempted to rehabilitate to a degree unknown in men's prisons Tracing regional and racial variations in these two branches of institutions over time Rafter finds that the criminal justice system has historically meted out partial justice to female inmates Women have benefited in neither case Partial Justice draws in first hand accounts legislative documents reports by investigatory commissions and most importantly the records of over 4 600 female prisoners taken from the original registers of five institutions This second edition includes two new chapters that bring the story into the present day and discusses measures now being used to challenge the partial justice women have historically experienced The Woman Question Elizabeth K. Helsinger, 1983 The Modern Temper Lynn Dumenil, 1995 When most of us take a backward glance at the 1920s we may think of prohibition and the jazz age of movies stars and flappers of Harold Lloyd and Mary Pickford of

Lindbergh and Hoover and of Black Friday October 29 1929 when the plunging stock market ushered in the great depression But the 1920s were much more Lynn Dumenil brings a fresh interpretation to a dramatic important and misunderstood decade As her lively work makes clear changing values brought an end to the repressive Victorian era urban liberalism emerged the federal bureaucracy was expanded pluralism became increasingly important to America s heterogeneous society and different religious ethnic and cultural groups encountered the homogenizing force of a powerful mass consumer culture The Modern Temper brings these many developments into sharp focus

The Construction of Homosexuality David F. Greenberg, 2008-10-29 At various times homosexuality has been considered the noblest of loves a horrible sin a psychological condition or grounds for torture and execution David F Greenberg s careful encyclopedic and important new book argues that homosexuality is only deviant because society has constructed or defined it as deviant The book takes us over vast terrains of example and detail in the history of homosexuality Nicholas B Dirks New York Times Book Review

Gender and Change Alexandra Shepard, Garthine Walker, 2009-06-08 Through a collection of essays by leading scholars on women s history and gender history Gender and Change Agency Chronology and Periodisation questions conventional chronologies while reassessing the relationship between gender agency continuity and change Celebrates 20 years of the publication of the journal Gender History Reflects the extent to which gender analysis suggests alternatives to conventional periodisation For example whether the European Renaissance can be classified as the same period of great cultural advance when viewed from the perspective of women Offers innovative historiographical and theoretical reflection on approaches to gender agency and change

Canadian Culinary Imaginations Shelley Boyd, Dorothy Barenscott, 2022-03-30 In the twenty first century food is media it is not just on plates but in literature and on screens displayed in galleries studios and public places Canadian Culinary Imaginations provokes new conversations about the food related concepts memories emotions cultures practices and tastes that make Canada unique This collection brings together academics writers artists journalists and curators to discuss how food mediates our experiences of the nation and the world Together the contributors reveal that culinary imaginations reflect and produce the diverse bodies contexts places communities traditions and environments that Canadians inhabit as well as their personal and artistic sensibilities Arranged in four thematic sections Indigeneity and foodways urban suburban and rural environments cultural and national lineages and subversions of categories the essays in this collection indulge a growing appetite for conversations about creative engagements with food and the world at large As the essays and images in Canadian Culinary Imaginations demonstrate food is more than sustenance as language and as visual and material culture it holds the power to represent and remake the world in unexpected ways

Major Problems in American Women's History Mary Beth Norton, Ruth M. Alexander, 1996 This text appropriate for courses in U S women s history presents a carefully selected group of readings that allow students to evaluate primary sources test the interpretations of distinguished historians and draw their own conclusions Designed to encourage critical thinking about history the Major Problems in American History Series introduces students to both primary sources and analytical essays Major Problems in American Women's History follows the proven Major Problems format with 14-15 chapters per volume a combination of documents and essays chapter introductions headnotes and suggested readings This volume now provides in depth coverage of the Civil War period Selections explore the lives of women in colonial America The text provides balanced coverage of diverse racial and social groups in the U.S. Publisher Familial Undercurrents Afsaneh Najmabadi, 2022-01-04 Not long after her father died Afsaneh Najmabadi discovered that her father had a secret second family and that she had a sister she never knew about In Familial Undercurrents Najmabadi uncovers her family's complex experiences of polygamous marriage to tell a larger story of the transformations of notions of love marriage and family life in mid twentieth century Iran She traces how the idea of marrying for love and the desire for companionate monogamous marriage acquired dominance in Tehran's emerging urban middle class Considering the role played in that process by late nineteenth and early twentieth century romance novels reformist newspapers plays and other literature Najmabadi outlines the rituals and objects such as wedding outfits letter writing and family portraits that came to characterize the ideal companionate marriage She reveals how in the course of one generation men's polygamy had evolved from an acceptable open practice to a taboo best kept secret At the same time she chronicles the urban transformations of Tehran and how its architecture and neighborhood social networks both influenced and became emblematic of the myriad forms of modern Iranian family life

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena

Degeneration, Normativity and the Gothic at the Fin de Siècle S. Karschay, 2015-01-06 This exciting new study looks at degeneration and deviance in nineteenth century science and late Victorian Gothic fiction The questions it raises are as relevant today as they were at the nineteenth century's fin de siècle What constitutes the norm from which a deviation has occurred What exactly does it mean to be normal or abnormal
