Support Not Surveillance: How to solve the teacher retention crisis Mary Bousted, 2022-04-08 Why are so many teachers leaving the profession increasingly early in their careers What harm is being done to pupils educational prospects by persistent teacher shortages Why are teachers held uniquely responsible for the effects of poverty on children s progress and attainment What are the unintended consequences of rushed government education policy making And what can be done about all of the above Supported by the latest international and national evidence Support Not Surveillance seeks to address these important questions Laying bare how the inadequacy of Westminster policies is compounded by an unfair Ofsted inspection regime Dr Mary Bousted draws on her years of expertise and access to decision makers to expose the gap between ministerial rhetoric and the daily reality encountered by teachers in their classrooms across England Ending on a set of proposals to move beyond the seemingly perennial crisis in teacher recruitment and retention Support Not Surveillance is an unflinching call to end the failed experiment of government interventionism in classrooms

Perspectives of Black Histories in Schools LaGarrett J. King, 2019-11-01 Concerned scholars and educators since the early 20th century have asked questions regarding the viability of Black history in k 12 schools Over the years we have seen k 12 Black history expand as an academic subject which has altered research questions that deviate from whether Black history is important to know to what type of Black history knowledge and pedagogies should be cultivated in classrooms in order to present a more holistic understanding of the group s historical significance Research around this subject has been stagnated typically focusing on the subject s tokenism and problematic status within education We know little of the state of k 12 Black history education and the different perspectives that Black history encompasses The book Perspectives on Black Histories in Schools brings together a diverse group of scholars who discuss how k 12 Black history is understood in education The book s chapters focus on the question what is Black history and explores that inquiry through various mediums including its foundation curriculum pedagogy policy and psychology The book provides researchers teacher educators and historians an examination into how much k 12 Black history has come and yet how long it still needed to go

Negotiating Cultural Diversity in Afghanistan Omar Sadr, 2020-01-09 This book analyses the problematique of governance and administration of cultural diversity within the modern state of Afghanistan and traces patterns of national integration It explores state construction in twentieth century Afghanistan and Afghan nationalism and explains the shifts in the state s policies and societal responses to different forms of governance of cultural diversity The book problematizes liberalism communitarianism and multiculturalism as approaches to governance of diversity within the nation state It suggests that while the western models of multiculturalism have recognized the need to accommodate different cultures they failed to engage with them through intercultural dialogue It also elaborates the challenge of intra group diversity and the problem of accommodating individual choice and freedom while recognising group rights and adoption of multiculturalism The book develops an alternative approach through synthesising critical multiculturalism and interculturalism as a framework on a democratic and inclusive approach to governance of diversity A major intervention in understanding a war torn country through an insider account this book will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of politics and international relations especially those concerned with multiculturalism state building nationalism and liberalism as well as those in cultural studies history Afghanistan studies South Asian studies Middle East studies minority studies and to policymakers
