Engaging Curriculum Bill Green,2017-09-18

Explicitly linking curriculum inquiry to English education via recurring themes of representation democracy and knowledge this book is a call for both researchers and practitioners to engage with curriculum explicitly and deliberatively as both a concept and a question The approach is broadly conceptual and constitutes an exercise in theoretical and philosophical inquiry While deeply informed by North American debates and developments this book offers a distinctive counterpoint and a strategically ex centric perspective being equally informed by the curriculum scene in Australia as well as the UK and elsewhere Divided into two sections this book first addresses matters of general curriculum inquiry while the second turns more specifically to English teaching and to associated questions of language literacy and literature in L1 education Green brings the two together through a critical examination of the Australian national curriculum especially in its implications and challenges for English teaching and with due regard for the project of transnational curriculum inquiry

Literary Knowing and the Making of English Teachers Larissa McLean Davies,Brenton Doecke,Philip Mead,Wayne Sawyer,Lyn Yates,2022-09-29

At a time when knowledge is being re valued as central to curriculum concerns subject English is being called to account Literary Knowing and the Making of English Teachers puts long standing debates about knowledge and knowing in English in dialogue with an investigation of how English teachers are made in the 21st century This book explores for the first time the role of literature in shaping English teachers professional knowledge and identities by examining the impacts in particular of their own school teaching in their making The voices of early career English teachers feature throughout the work in a series of vignettes providing reflective accounts of their professional learning The authors bring a range of disciplinary expertise and standpoints to explore the complexity of knowledge and knowing in English They ask How do English teachers negotiate competing curriculum demands How do they understand literary knowledge in a neoliberal context What is core English knowledge for students and what role should literature play in the contemporary curriculum Drawing on a major longitudinal research project they bring to light what English teachers see as central to their work the ways they connect teaching with their disciplinary training and how their understandings of literary practice are contested and reimaged in the classroom This innovative work is essential reading for scholars and postgraduate students in the fields of teacher education English education literary studies and curriculum studies
