Communication Rights in Africa Tendai Chari, Ufuoma Akpojivi, 2023-09-01 This ground breaking volume examines enduring and emerging discourses around communication rights in Africa arguing that they should be considered an integral component of the human rights discourse in Africa Drawing on a broad range of case studies across the continent the volume considers what constitutes communication rights in Africa who should protect them against whom and how communication rights relate to broader human rights While the case studies highlight the variation in communicative rights experiences between countries they also coalesce around common tropes and practices for the implementation and expression of communication rights Deploying a variety of innovative theoretical and methodological approaches the chapters scrutinise different facets of communication rights in the context of both offline and digital communication realities The contributions provide illuminating accounts on language rights digital exclusion digital activism citizen journalism media regulation and censorship protection of intellectual property rights politics of mobile data and politicisation of social media This is the first collection to consider communication in Africa using a rights based lens The book will appeal to researchers academics communication activists and media practitioners at all levels in the fields of media studies journalism human rights political science public policy as well as general readers who are keen to know about the status of communication rights in Africa

Expanding Tertiary Education for Well-Paid Jobs Andreas Blom, Reehana Raza, Crispus Kiamba, Himdat Bayusuf, Mariam Adil, 2016-06-02 Expanding Tertiary education with quality relevance and equity is one of the most decisive challenges for Kenya s future including the achievement of the ideals of the 2010 Constitution and especially its 2030 vision which aims at transforming Kenya into a newly industrializing middle income globally competitive and prosperous country That is because tertiary education can contribute in a critical manner to successfully overcome several of the country s challenges This book provide analysis and policy recommendations to Government of Kenya tertiary education leaders and the many stakeholders on managing the massive tertiary education expansion facing the country This book first discusses the motivation for the analysis and its choice of three critical topics quality and relevance governance and student financing Secondly it reviews findings on each area and third it ends with a set of policy recommendations Higher Education Leadership and Governance in the Development of the Creative and Cultural Industries in Kenya Emily Akuno, Otoy

Ondieki, 2017-05-05 The role of higher education in establishing structures and procedures in society and industry is clearly articulated in scholarly discussions The narrative has recently taken a new momentum in Kenya with acknowledgement of the creative industry involves many youth as an area that impacts on the economy In unravelling the link between higher education and industry the authors focus on leadership and governance in higher education and its expected and perceived contribution to the shaping of the creative industry Through analysis of cases the authors interrogate the processes and structures that govern the teaching and practice of the creative subjects noting how these affect the creative industry in

Kenya This document approaches the creative disciplines from the perspectives of the students lecturers and university administrators The three voices provide a balanced view of what higher creative arts education in Kenya is The multiple authorship of the book further provides a balanced account of the development of these disciplines in higher education and their growth in industry The key concepts here are the development of the creative industry and how higher education should contribute to the same
