Content	There is one, clear main idea that is well-developed with lots of details throughout the piece.	The main idea is somewhat clear, but needs more development throughout the piece.	The main idea is not clear or well-developed.
Organization	The piece is well-organized and "flows;" many transition words show how the ideas are connected and the reader is never left feeling confused about what is happening.	The piece is somewhat organized and "flows" in some spots; some transition words are used but there are a few places where the reader gets confused as to what is happening.	The piece does not "flow;" there are little to no transition words OR transition words are not effective; there are many places where the reader feels confused about what is happening.
Word Choice	The piece contains sophisticated vocabulary; words are usually used appropriately.	The piece contains some sophisticated words that are somewhat used appropriately.	The piece contains few sophisticated words. OR the words are rarely used appropriately and are distracting to the reader.
Conventions	There are few (no more than 3) errors in spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization. It is clear the writer took time to carefully edit the piece.	There are some (4-6) errors in spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization. The writer made an attempt at editing.	There are many (7+) errors in spelling, grammar, punctuation, and capitalization which interfere with the reader's understanding of the piece. There appears to be little, if any, attempt at editing.
Reader's "Take Away"	The "take away" message is relevant and clear to almost all readers of this piece.	The "take away" message is somewhat relevant and clear to many readers of this piece.	Readers may finish and be left wondering about the writer's purpose for this piece.
Becoming a great writer takes lots and lots of effort and practice. And then, even with lots of effort and practice, many people never become "great" at it. All I ask is that you give it your best shot! Have enough pride in your work to make it readable, take risks and experiment with words and ideas, dare to pour your heart out on the page, and you will do fine in this class.
