Archaeologies of the Future Jameson's most substantial work since Postmodernism Or the Cultural Logic of Late Capitalism investigates the development of this form since Thomas More and interrogates the functions of utopian thinking in a post Communist age The relationship between utopia and science fiction is explored through the representations of otherness alien life and alien worlds and a study of the works of Philip K Dick Ursula LeGuin William Gibson Brian Aldiss Kim Stanley Robinson and more Jameson's essential essays including The Desire Called Utopia conclude with an examination of the opposing positions on utopia and an assessment of its political value today
At the End of the Street in the Shadow Matthew Asprey Gear, 2016-02-16 The films of Orson Welles inhabit the spaces of cities from America's industrializing midland to its noirish borderlands from Europe's medieval fortresses to its Kafkaesque labyrinths and postwar rubblescapes His movies take us through dark streets to confront nightmarish struggles for power the carnivalesque and bizarre and the shadows and light of human character This ambitious new study explores Welles's vision of cities by following recurring themes across his work including urban transformation race relations and fascism the utopian promise of cosmopolitanism and romantic nostalgia for archaic forms of urban culture It focuses on the personal and political foundation of Welles's cinematic cities the way he invents urban spaces on film to serve his dramatic thematic and ideological purposes The book's critical scope draws on extensive research in international archives and builds on the work of previous scholars Viewing Welles as a radical filmmaker whose innovative methods were only occasionally compatible with the commercial film industry this volume examines the filmmaker's original vision for butchered films such as The Magnificent Ambersons 1942 and Mr Arkadin 1955 and considers many projects the filmmaker never completed an immense shadow oeuvre ranging from unfinished and unreleased films to unrealized treatments and screenplays
