The 13 English Colonies

You Are There

You have been waiting seven years for this day. Seven years of working 14 hours a day as an indentured servant for a carpenter in Philadelphia. And now you are finally on your own. So what next?

You go for a walk and think things over. You are twenty-one years old. You have a little bit of money saved. Besides that, you own a new suit and a set of carpentry tools—and not much else.

You know some carpenters who moved north to Massachusetts to work in the busy shipbuilding yards there. The pay is good, but you have always dreamed of owning a piece of land. Maybe you could try moving south, where the sun is warm and the land is fertile. Then again, there is lots of good land right here in Pennsylvania.

This is going to be a hard decision. You have your whole life ahead of you—and 13 different colonies from which to choose.

Compare and Contrast

As you read, compare the reasons the different English colonies were founded.
