Reading Raps Rita Soltan,2005-12-30 Book clubs are sprouting up all over and so are book club guides but not all book club guides are equal Many focus on a specific type of book club or they take a generic approach of one size fits all and most do not take into account the special needs of librarians and educators working with young readers This guide has it all and it will help you ensure that your book club meetings are both fun and educational Focusing on children in grades 3-8 and their families the book offers 100 ready-made book club instructions for popular children's and YA titles from newer releases such as Theresa Nelson's Ruby Electric and Blue Balliett's Chasing Vermeer to perennial favorites and award-winning classics such as Johanna Hurwitz's Much Ado about Aldo and Gary Soto's Baseball in April and Other Stories Along with thought-provoking discussion questions you'll find all the background information you need to conduct lively book discussions with a variety of readers plot summary themes and characters description genre reading level author and award information related reads and more The guide describes four types of family-oriented book clubs family mother-daughter father-son and readers' rap as well as a book club for kids only The author provides practical instructions for making each type of book club successful For each title she provides a plot summary characterization sketches questions to use for provocative discussion and follow-up bibliographies on similar reads Notes on genres themes and reading levels are also provided The selected titles reflect some of the best most current and most popular children's literature In addition a broad scope of genres and multicultural titles are included Perfect for public library programs and after-school book clubs this is a one-stop resource with practical ready-made plans that can easily be adapted to multiple environments Grades 3-8 Bud, Not Buddy Kathy Pounds, 2002-07 Suggested activities to be used in the classroom to accompany the reading of Bud, Not Buddy by Christopher Paul Curtis Handbook of Reading Research, Volume III Michael L. Kamil, Peter B. Mosenthal, P. David Pearson, Rebecca Barr, 2016-11-18 In Volume III as in Volumes I and II the classic topics of reading are included from vocabulary and comprehension to reading instruction in the classroom and in addition each contributor was asked to include a brief history that chronicles the legacies within each of the volume's many topics However on the whole Volume III is not about tradition Rather it explores the verges of reading research between the time Volume II was published in 1991 and the research conducted after this date The editors identified two broad themes as representing the myriad of verges that have emerged since Volumes I and II were published 1 broadening the definition of reading and 2 broadening the reading research program The particulars of these new themes and topics are addressed What Do I Teach Readers Tomorrow? Fiction, Grades 3-8 Gravity Goldberg, Renee Houser, 2017-02-23 Streamline formative assessment for readers in just minutes a day With What Do I Teach Readers Tomorrow? Fiction learn how to move your students forward in their reading with this 4-step process lean in listen to students talk about books look at their writing about reading and then make teaching decisions based on what they've conquered and what challenges they need to take on next This practical approach shows you how to notice when readers are doing mostly literal right there on the page thinking when they are doing over time synthesizing across a text and when they are ready to kick into high gear and connect ideas across texts and real-world themes The authors provide next-step resources for whole class small group and one-on-one instruction including Tips for what to look for and listen for in reading
