Parliament. House of Commons. Committee of Public Accounts, 2015 Since the introduction of the Pupil Premium in 2011 there is some evidence that the attainment gap between disadvantaged pupils and their peers has started to narrow Head teachers have increased their focus on tackling this obdurate issue and there are many examples of schools using the Pupil Premium on interventions that work The work of the Education Endowment Foundation has also been important in developing the evidence base for what works best and so helping schools to choose the best interventions for their own circumstances However the Department for Education needs to be better at supporting schools to share and use best practice more consistently so that more schools use the Pupil Premium effectively In addition there remain inequalities in the core funding received by schools with very similar levels of disadvantage As the impact of the

Pupil Premium will take a long time to be fully realised the Department needs to do more to demonstrate its emerging benefits in the meantime We also urge the Department to carry out an early review of the effectiveness of the Early Years Pupil Premium EFA Global Monitoring Report - 2013-2014 - Teaching and Learning Achieving quality for all
UNESCO,2014-02-04 The 2013 2014 Education for All Global Monitoring Report shows that a lack of attention to education quality and a failure to reach the marginalized have contributed to a learning crisis that needs urgent attention Worldwide 250 million children many of them from disadvantaged backgrounds are not learning the basics Teaching and Learning Achieving Quality for All describes how policy makers can support and sustain a quality education system for all children regardless of background by providing the best teachers The Report also documents global progress in achieving Education for All goals and provides lessons for setting a new education agenda post 2015 In addition the Report identifies that insufficient financing is hindering advances in education Lesson Study with Mathematics and Science Preservice
