

MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

1123 ENGLISH LANGUAGE

1123/22

Paper 2 (Reading), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Interdisciplinary Approaches to Multilingualism Suzanne Curtin, Mary Grantham O'Brien, Rahat Naqvi, 2015-07-16 This research topic stems from the Interdisciplinary Approaches to Multilingualism conference which was hosted by the Language Research Centre at the University of Calgary It was the first conference of its kind which brought together the work of researchers educators and policy makers in the areas of first and second language acquisition from psycholinguistic and pedagogical perspectives The goal was to provide an opportunity for participants to engage with the implications of multilingualism from a range of perspectives including the effects of being bilingual from infancy to adulthood the process and benefits of learning multiple languages and the impact of multilingualism on society

Jihadism Transformed Simon Staffell, Akil N. Awan, 2016-12-01 Jihadist narratives have evolved dramatically over the past five years driven by momentous events in the Middle East and beyond the death of bin Laden the rise and ultimate failure of the Arab Spring and most notably the rise of the so called Islamic State For many years al Qaeda pointed to an aspirational future Caliphate as their utopian end goal one which allowed them to justify their violent excesses in the here and now Islamic State turned that aspiration into a dystopic reality and in the process hijacked the jihadist narrative breathing new life into the global Salafi Jihadi movement Despite air strikes from above and local disillusionment from below the new caliphate has stubbornly persisted and has been at the heart of ISIS s growing global appeal This timely collection of essays examines how jihadist narratives have changed globally adapting to these turbulent circumstances Area and thematic specialists consider transitions inside the Middle East and North Africa as well as in South Asia sub Saharan Africa and Europe As these analyses demonstrate the success of the ISIS narrative has been as much about resonance with local contexts as it has been about the appeal of the global idea of a tangible and realised caliphate

The Eastern Mediterranean in Transition Spyridon N. Litsas, Aristotle Tziampiris, 2016-03-09 The wider region of the Eastern Mediterranean is in transition What is being evinced is a situation of continuous volatility centering on developments such as the Arab Spring the Greek sovereign debt crisis Islamic terrorism the continuation of deadlock over the Cypriot and Palestinian Issues significant energy finds in the Levantine Basin concerns over nuclear proliferation and more recently the Syrian Civil War At a systemic level the move towards a regional multipolar reality has also contributed to volatility by creating a crescendo of antagonisms between all the major international actors who continuously strive for more influence power and prestige This collective project by leading experts represents a unique combination of International Theory and International Politics analysis that deals exclusively with the wider Eastern Mediterranean It scrutinizes in a multidimensional manner the current geostrategic and geopolitical conditions that include the latest domestic socio political events as well as the active involvement of the Great Powers in the region This book should be of interest to academics decision makers and a general reading public focusing on a significant and influential region in flux

How to be Good John Harris, 2016-04-07 How to be Good is the pre eminent question for ethics although one that philosophers and ethicists seldom address head on Knowing how to be good or perhaps more modestly and more accurately knowing how to go about trying to be good and the ways in which it is pointless or self defeating to try to be good is of immense theoretical and practical importance And what goes for trying to be good oneself goes also for trying to provide others with ways of being good and for trying to make them good whether they like it or not This is what is meant by moral enhancement There are many proposed methodologies or technologies for moral enhancement Some of them are ancient and or familiar we may attempt moral enhancement by setting a good example by good parenting by education or training by peer pressure by telling stories with a moral in words or in pictures and so on We can imbibe substances with mood changing or motivational effects We can also use medical biological or other scientific means we can search for and deploy chemicals or biological or molecular agents which we believe will change people for the better and we can modify the environment to make bad outcomes of all sorts less likely We can experiment with political and social systems institutions and arrangements designed to make the world a better place or people better people The question whether and to what extent moral enhancement is possible is the subject of this book
