15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

Privatizing War William Feldman, 2016-06-17 This book offers a comprehensive moral theory of privatization in war It examines the kind of wars that private actors might wage separate from the state and the kind of wars that private actors might wage as functionaries of the state The first type of war serves to probe the ad bellum question of whether private actors can justifiably authorize war while the second type of war serves to probe the in bello question of whether private actors can justifiably participate in war The cases that drive the analysis are drawn from the rich and complicated history of private military action stretching back centuries to the Italian city states whose mercenaries were reviled by

Machiavelli The book also takes up the hypothetical examples conjured by philosophers the private protective agencies of Robert Nozick's Anarchy State and Utopia for example and the private armies of Thomas More's Utopia The aim of this book is to propose a theory of privatization that retains currency not only in assessing current military engagements but past and future ones as well In doing so it also raises a set of important questions about the very enterprise of war This book will be of much interest to students of ethics political philosophy military studies international relations war and conflict studies and security studies

Moulin, 2023-05-02 While espionage between states is a practice dating back centuries the emergence of the internet revolutionised the types and scale of intelligence activities creating drastic new challenges for the traditional legal frameworks governing them This book argues that cyber espionage has come to have an uneasy status in law it is not prohibited because spying does not result in an internationally wrongful act but neither is it authorised or permitted because states are free to resist foreign cyber espionage activities Rather than seeking further regulation however governments have remained purposefully silent leaving them free to pursue cyber espionage themselves at the same time as they adopt measures to prevent falling victim to it Drawing on detailed analysis of state practice and examples from sovereignty diplomacy human rights and economic law this book offers a comprehensive overview of the current legal status of cyber espionage as well as future directions for research and policy It is an essential resource for scholars and practitioners in international law as well as anyone interested in the future of cyber security
