I think about you still
You have never been forgotten
And you never will
I hold you close within my heart
And there you will remain
To walk with me throughout my life
Until we meet again

Of A Cold War Son Gaines Post, 2002-04-25 In 1951 Gaines Post was a gangly bespectacled introspective teenager preparing to spend a year in Paris with his professorial father and older brother his mother who suffered from extreme depression had been absent from the family for some time Ten years later now less gangly but no less introspective he was finishing a two year stint in the army in West Germany and heading toward Oxford on a Rhodes scholarship having narrowly escaped combat in the Berlin crisis of 1961 His quietly intense coming of age story is both self revealing and reflective of an entire generation of young men who came to adulthood before the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Post's experiences in high school in Madison Wisconsin and Paris his Camus influenced undergraduate years at Cornell University and his army service in Germany are set very effectively against the events of the Cold War McCarthyism and American crackdowns on dissidents American foreign and military policy in Western Europe in the nuclear age French and German life and culture crises in Paris and Berlin that nearly bring the West to war and the Post family to dissolution these are the larger scenes and subjects of his self disclosure as a contemplative conflicted Cold War agnostic His intelligent talented mother and her fragile health hover over Post s narrative informing his hesitant relationships with women and his acutely questioning sense of self worth His story is strongly academic and historical as well as political and military his perceptions and judgments lean toward no ideological extreme but remain true to the heroic ideals of his boyhood during the Second World War

Miss Ex-Yugoslavia Sofija Stefanovic,2019-04-16 A funny and tragic and beautiful in all the right places Jenny Lawson 1 New York Times bestseller author of Furiously Happy memoir about the immigrant experience and life as a perpetual fish out of water from the acclaimed Serbian Australian storyteller Sofija Stefanovic makes the first of many awkward entrances in 1982 when she is born in socialist Yugoslavia The circumstances of her birth a blackout gasoline shortages bickering parents don t exactly get her off to a running start While around her ethnic tensions are stoked by totalitarian leaders with violent agendas Stefanovic s early life is filled with Yugo rock inadvisable crushes and the quirky ups and downs of life in a socialist state As the political situation grows more dire the Stefanovics travel back and forth between faraway peaceful Australia where they can t seem to fit in and their turbulent homeland which they can t seem to shake

Meanwhile Yugoslavia collapses into the bloodiest European conflict in recent history Featuring warlords and beauty queens tiger cubs and Baby Sitters Clubs Sofija Stefanovic s memoir is a window to a complicated culture that she both cherishes and resents Revealing war and immigration from the crucial viewpoint of women and children Stefanovic chronicles her own coming of age both as a woman and as an artist Refreshingly candid poignant and illuminating Stefanovic s story is as unique and wacky as it is important Esquire Miss M K.
