Justice and food security in a changing climate Hanna Schübel,Ivo Wallimann-Helmer,2023-08-14 The UN's Sustainable Development Goals saw the global community agree to end hunger and malnutrition in all its forms by 2030 However the number of chronically undernourished people is increasing continuously Ongoing climate change and the action needed to adapt to it are very likely to aggravate this situation by limiting agricultural land and water resources and changing environmental conditions for food production. Climate change and the actions it requires raise questions of justice especially regarding food security. These key concerns of ethics and justice for food security due to climate change challenges are the focus of this book which brings together work by scholars from a wide range of disciplines and a multitude of perspectives. These experts discuss the challenges to food security posed by mitigation, geoengineering and adaptation measures that tackle the impacts of climate change. Others address the consequences of a changing climate for agriculture and food production and how the Covid 19 pandemic has affected food security and animal welfare.

Practicing Responsibility in Business Schools Bjørn T. Asheim, Thomas Laudal, Reidar J. Mykletun, 2023-11-03. This is an open access title available under the terms of a CC BY NC ND 4.0 License. It is free to read, download and share on Elgaronline.com. Promoting more responsible action in relation to business sustainability, this book addresses the increasing discomfort among faculty members and wider society as to how business schools prepare students for the future. Reflective and inspiring, it seeks to motivate the necessary action which may be a small but crucial catalyst to solving challenges posed by increasing globalisation, migration, economic development, changing demographics and cultural exchange.
