Personal Loss to Societal Grieving Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving considers how secondary English language arts teachers and teacher educators can sensitively and thoughtfully teach pieces of literature in their classrooms in which large scale deaths are a significant if not central aspect of the texts As mass shootings and violence against black and brown bodies increase and issues such as AIDS war and genocide remain important to discuss as part of a shared critical and social consciousness this book provides resources for educators to directly tackle and discuss these topics through the texts they read in their ELA classrooms Whether it is canonical or contemporary literature middle grades or young adult literature fiction nonfiction or graphic novels literature provides a vehicle to have these difficult but needed conversations about not only the personal but social effects of death and grief in our society Each chapter in this book focuses on 1 2 texts and provides practical activities that ask students to engage with death dying and loss through writing assignments projects activities and discussion prompts in order to build empathy understanding and develop critically minded and engaged students Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving will be of interest to English language arts teachers teacher educators librarians and scholars who wish to explore with their students the complex emotions that revolve around discussing deaths that occur in literature The Compound S. A.

Bodeen, 2008-04-29 S A Bodeen s The Compound is a 2009 Bank Street Best Children s Book of the Year Eli and his family have lived in the Compound for six years The world they knew is gone Eli s father built the Compound to keep them safe Now they can t get out He won t let them Film and the Afterlife David Rankin, 2019-07-15 This book explores how post death existence is represented in popular film looking at issues such as continuity personal identity and the nature of existence beyond the grave Film often returns to the theme of dying death and the afterlife both directly and indirectly because there are very few subjects as compelling and universal The book compares the representation of death dying and the afterlife in films to scholarly surveys of attitudes towards life after death through the analysis of twenty films made between the end of World War II and now It looks at the portrayals of stages between death and a final destination spatio temporal and personal continuity the nature of afterlife existence in terms of embodiment or not and the contact between the worlds of the living and the dead This book offers a wide ranging view on a compelling subject in film As such it will be of great interest to scholars of Religion and Film Religion and Media the Philosophy of Religion and the Sociology of Religion as well as Religion Media and Film Studies more generally For When You are Bored and Want to Hear My Thoughts Ellie Lee,2018-11-17 Author Ellie Lee presents an entertaining thought provoking collection of essays in the form of a journal A creative person who hails from Canada originally from South Korea she brings a refreshing and unique perspective Journeying through the good times and the bad Lee offers a collection of stories from her life Based on a series of journal entries For When You are Bored and Want to Hear My Thoughts shares colorful and often opinionated selections Delivered in three parts the first section contains narratives derived from her simple daily life gathered while participating activities or observing the environment The second part includes Lee s opinions thoughts and explanations about her feelings and ideas The third part offers a look at her life and how she s living it Under the Persimmon Tree Suzanne Fisher Staples,2005-08-08 During the 2001 Afghan War the lives of Najmah a young refugee from Kunduz Afghanistan and Nusrat an American Muslim teacher who is awaiting her husband s return from Mazar i Sharif intersect at a school in Peshawar Pakistan A Guide to Teaching Practice Louis Cohen,Lawrence Manion,Keith Morrison,Dominic Wyse,2010-06-17 A Guide to Teaching Practice has long been a major standard text for all students of initial teacher training courses This new edition has been thoroughly revised and updated to take account of the many changes that have taken place both within The Ultimate Teen Book Guide Daniel Hahn,Leonie Flynn,Susan Reuben,2007-12-26 Covering such genres as fantasy horror chick lit graphic novels sci fi and mystery an all encompassing must have resource profiles more than 700 of the best books for teens from the classics to the latest bestsellers Simultaneous Death, Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature Kathryn James,2009-02-10 Knowledge about carnality and its limits provides the agenda for much of the fiction written for adolescent readers today yet there exists little critical engagement with the ways in which it has been represented in the young adult novel in either discursive ideological or rhetorical forms Death Gender and Sexuality in Contemporary Adolescent Literature is a pioneering study that addresses these methodological and contextual gaps Focusing on texts produced since the late 1980s and drawing on a range of theoretical perspectives Kathryn James shows how representations of death in young adult literature are invariably associated with issues of sexuality gender and power Under particular scrutiny are the trope of woman death the eroticizing and sexualizing of death and the ways in which the gendered subject is represented in dialogue with the processes of death dying and grief Through close readings of historical literature fantasy fictions realistic novels dead narrator tales and texts from genres including Gothic horror and post disaster James reveals not only how cultural discourses influence and are influenced by literary works but how relevant the study of death is to adolescent fiction the literature of becoming The Storied Life of A.
