Fat Tire Flyer Charlie Kelly, 2034-05 The most important development in bicycling of the 20th Century was the mountain bike For decades American kids had ridden their balloon tire bicycles on dirt roads and trails In the 1970s an unlikely band of bicyclists started modifying these old bikes to ride off road This led to the first contest of speed for the old bikes the Repack Downhill which started in 1976 Racing downhill led to the development of bicycles made for the purpose In 1979 a small company called MountainBikes marketed the first commercial versions which led to a revolution in the bicycle industry and a new Olympic and world championship sport Fat Tire Flyer is a firsthand account of these events from one of the participants

Fat Tire Flyer Charlie Kelly, 2023-07 Charlie Kelly co founder of the MountainBikes company with Gary Fisher organizer of the Repack races and chronicler of the sport now delivers the true complete and often unbelievable history of the rise of mountain biking and its lasting culture It all started with a small crew of bicycle obsessed hippies bombing the downhill trails of Mount Tamalpais in Marin County California As the friendly competition intensified on the steep dirt trail they called Repack history s first mountain bikers began craving an upgrade from the old Schwinn cruisers they had rescued from the junkyard With the single minded focus found only among the truly obsessed this rag tag group sparked a rapid evolution that transformed the castoff Repack bomber into the modern mountain bike a refined and elegant machine that quickly became the top selling bicycle in the world The Mechanical Horse Margaret Guroff, 2018-01-04 In this lively cultural history

Margaret Guroff reveals how the bicycle has transformed American society from making us mobile to empowering people in all avenues of life Book jacket Wheels on Ice Jessica Cherry, Frank Soos, 2022-12 Wheels on Ice reveals Alaska s key role in bicycling both as a mode of travel and as an endurance sport as well as its special allure for those seeking the proverbial struggle against nature This collection opens with the first bicycle boom and the advent of the safety bicycle in the late 1800s at approximately the same time gold was discovered in Alaska and the Yukon Territory As bicycles evolved Alaskans were among the first to innovate the fatbike for example evolved from the mountain bike in the late 1980s into a wider framed bike with fatter tires making snow biking more accessible and giving birth to the Iditabike race More recently ultra endurance cyclist Lael Wilcox rode all the major roads in the state totaling more than 4 500 miles of gravel and pavement Jessica Cherry and Frank Soos s diverse group of stories covers cycling both past and present From riders commuting in every kind of weather to those seeking long distance adventure in the most remote sections of the United States these stories will inspire cyclists to ride into their own stories in Alaska and beyond The Unforgiving Hours Shannon Hogan, 2025-04-08 From the frozen wilds of Alaska s treacherous trails to the unyielding currents of Puget Sound and Canada s Inside Passage from the rugged majesty of Colorado s peaks to the vibrant depths of Costa Rica s rainforests Hogan offers us an intimate window into the toughest contests in sports Whether it s a blistering race across the furnace trails of gold country in the Sierra Nevadas a grueling swim in frigid water to break the Ice Mile Distance record or a competition on the biggest triathlon stage with a determination beyond perceived limitations each journey reveals the resilience and humor it takes to face the unknown with only the guarantee of discomfort ahead These stories of ordinary women and men who kept going even when things went wrong especially when the weather and tides did not cooperate attest to the drive grit and patience that exists in all of us Through exhaustion setbacks and moments of darkness and doubt these athletes prove that greatness isn't about perfection it's about perseverance Their triumphs large and small are a testament to the power of adaptability passion and the sheer will to keep going one breath one step one stroke and one mile at a time Amazon.com
