Biological integrity James Harold Doyle, 1921 The Borders of Empathy in Children's Fiction Macarena

García-González, 2025-06-16 The Borders of Empathy in Children's Fiction centres the question of how reading fiction develops our moral imagination and our capacities to think and feel with others The question is approached with a good dose of scepticism revising tensions between ethical aesthetical and pedagogical dimensions when certain books films and other cultural materials are recommended for children This volume examines how texts addressed to children are meant to assist socioemotional education and whether we put forward adultist assumptions around such conceptualisations of the emotional The book is organised into nine chapters with some of them focusing on difficult themes such as violence xenophobia death migration as well as gender and social exclusions and some others on more general relationships between emotions media and education The chapters combine a textual analysis of recommended cultural materials for children with insights from empirical research and ethnographic approaches to children's cultures A common thread throughout the book is the open question about the epistemic injustices in knowing children and childhood and how this may be overcome by shifting our research practices with posthumanist philosophies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Renaissance Go-Betweens Andreas Höfele, Werner von Koppenfels, 2011-12-22 The volume analyses some of the travelling and bridge building activities that went on in Renaissance Europe mainly but not exclusively across the Channel true to Montaigne's epoch making program of describing the passage Its emphasis on Anglo Continental relations ensures a firm basis in English literature but its particular appeal lies in its European point of view and in the perspectives it opens up into other areas of early modern culture such as pictorial art philosophy and economics The multiple implications of the go between concept make for structured diversity The chapters of this book are arranged in three stages Part 1 Mediators focuses on influential go betweens both as groups like the translators and as individual mediators The second part of this book Mediations is concerned with individual acts of mediation and with the mental topographies they presuppose reflect and redraw in their turn Part 3 Representations looks at the role of exemplary intermediaries and the workings of mediation represented on the early modern English stage Key features High quality anthology on phenomena of cultural exchange in the Renaissance era With contributions by outstanding international experts

John Calvin's Bible Commentaries On Isaiah 17- 32 John Calvin, All who take delight in the Holy Scriptures are familiarly acquainted with the writings of The Prophet Isaiah Every variety of taste finds in them its appropriate gratification Lofty conceptions illustrated by splendid imagery and clothed in language usually copious and flowing some times abrupt but always graceful leave no room for hesitation to pronounce him with Bishop Lowth to be the most sublime and elegant of the Prophets of the Old Testament He is regarded with peculiar veneration as an honest fearless and able messenger of the Most High God boldly reproving nobles and monarchs denouncing the judgments of Heaven against all transgressors and asserting the claims of the Divine law and government above all human authority In his Prophecies he takes a wide range surveys those nations which power or wealth or learning or commerce had raised to the highest celebrity in those remote times and describes their rise and fall and wonderful revolutions so eagerly traced lay us in the page of history as the execution of Jehovah s counsels and the arrangements of unerring wisdom But chiefly does he pour out rich instruction concerning the Messiah whose life and sufferings and death and glorious reign he delineates so faithfully and with such thrilling interest that he has obtained the appellation of The Evangelical Prophet Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Mrs Petrova's Shoe Wilhelm Agrell, 2019-02-21 Two men are holding a woman between them in a firm grip In one hand she is carrying her handbag the other she places on her heart The man on her right stares into the camera his colleague stares resolutely ahead But there is something else something missing The despairing woman is wearing only one shoe On 19 April 1954 the world was gripped by an unfolding drama at Sydney Airport A small seemingly fragile woman was being aggressively marched to an awaiting plane by two burly men Evdokia Petrova was the wife of Soviet diplomat Vladimir Petrov who two weeks earlier had defected from the embassy in Canberra after a prolonged cultivation by the Australian Security Service supported by MI5 Evdokia was now being hurried back to Moscow by the KGB The subsequent intervention by Australian Prime Minister Robert Menzies kept the world's media on tenterhooks But who were the couple at the centre of this global news story After the defection it turned out that Evdokia was in fact an even bigger catch than her husband With a background both in cryptological work in Moscow and in field operations she was able to supply Western intelligence with a wealth of information and insight into the workings of the Soviet intelligence system With access to newly released archives and sources this book sheds extraordinary new light on the two people at the heart of the Petrov Affair one of the most bizarre stories of the Cold War era
