Flury Journey Of A Snowman:

Flury: Journey of a Snowman Tony Bertauski, 2014-11-15 Life hasn't been kind to Oliver Toye. As if juvenile diabetes isn't enough, he's forced to live with his tyrannical grandmother in a snow-bound house. He spends his days doing chores and the nights listening to the forest rumble. But when he discovers the first leather-bound journal, the family secrets begin to surface. The mystery of his great grandfather's voyage to the North Pole is revealed. That's when the snowman appears. Magical and mysterious, the snowman will save Oliver more than once. But when the time comes for Oliver to discover the truth, will he have the courage? When Flury needs him, will he have the strength? When believing isn't enough, will he save the snowman from melting away? Because sometimes even magic needs a little help.

INTERVIEW WITH AUTHOR Where did you come up with the idea of writing science fiction for holiday characters? My nephew mentioned the secret Santa/ninja elves that visit his school during Christmas, and this spawned the idea of writing a semi-serious sci-fi version of Santa. How do the ideas flesh out? It's a long process. I started keeping track of how the story arc of my latest novel evolves just to remember where it began. It's all over the place. I love the challenge of bringing a story to light, letting the characters get in my head and telling me where to go. Flury: Journey of a Snowman is the third book in the Claus series. It was originally Frosty the Snowman, but Frosty is copyrighted. It didn't matter really. The character was better suited to be something other than Frosty. Flury is a bit more serious. Are you getting any backlash for rewriting these Christmas legends? Not at all. In fact, a lot of readers have connected to all the unanswered questions surrounding them, especially Santa Claus. How does he go around the world in a night? Why is he fat? Why does he live on the North Pole? How do reindeer fly? How does he carry all those presents? All of them answered with the magic wand of science fiction. I mean, the science wand of science fiction. The stories still have the fantasy element of course. Some leaps of imagination. And also the romance angle. Why? Because all stories have love. What is your favorite character from the books that you have written? Socket Greeny is one of my favorites. That science fiction trilogy was my first story. I wrote it in first person and really connected with him. However, Jack Frost is in Claus: Legend of the Fat Man and Jack: The Tale of Frost and has become my all-time fave. He's childish, irreverent, and dangerous, but at the same time lovable. What order should readers purchase the Claus books? Claus: Legend of the Fat Man is the best start. After that, any order works. They all can be read as standalone novels.

INTERVIEW WITH THE AUTHOR When did you start writing My first effort started with Socket Greeny It was a story I started for my son because he hated to read It didn't work but this character Socket took root It was the first time I felt possessed by a character with a story to tell It took me 5 years and countless rewrites to get it right I waited by the mailbox after that but the giant paycheck never arrived If you can't make money why write fiction I didn't say you can't make money There are a lot of people out there with a good book whether it's romance dystopia science fiction or young adult I'm just a minnow in a crowded pond It took a good deal of networking and research to realize just how hard it is Thanks to epublishing I can get the book out That frees me up to write what inspires me Writing is the true love There's something deeply satisfying to have characters come to life in your mind and watch their stories unfold It's a deeper experience than reading someone else's story What do you want readers to get from your stories I've always been inspired by fearless writing that asked poignant questions questions like who am I and what is the universe Things that made me look at life slightly different books that exposed a layer of reality Writing in the young adult genre appealed to me most because that's the age I really craved those questions and answers I want readers to see the world slightly different What is your favorite character I love a bad bad antagonist that you can't entirely hate there's some smidgeon of redemption you feel inside this demented sorry character Heath Ledger's Joker A despicable character that didn't deserve an ounce of pity but for some reason I didn't hate him as much as I should have. It's that character I find most intriguing. In The Greeny Saga, the character Pike was my Joker. The Annihilation of Foreverland Tony Bertauski, 2019-08-30. When kids awake on an island, they're told there was an accident. Before they can go home, they will visit Foreverland, an alternate reality that will heal their minds. Reed dreams of a girl that tells him to resist Foreverland. He doesn't remember her name but knows he once loved her. He'll have to endure great suffering and trust his dream. And trust he's not insane. Why should anyone care how Foreverland works?
