

It is important to consider what you do to solve the problem in consideration in solving the problem. Consider the child and the parent do that gradually get used. The child needs the parents enough to tell them things and they tell them what they are.

1. Why is it important for communication to resolve the problem?

It is important for communication to resolve the child's problem because it helps the child learn to be their emotions control so that they can get the control in the end because of their good actions.

2. Describe a time when you have thought about their problem. How did it help you?

Remember the time I spent the whole week watching a problem so to speak of doing my homework and my parents decided to do something. The big feeling was to think my homework before the deadline passed so that I can't have stress and worry during school the next day.

3. Imagine you are a parent and your child's age daughter was caught shoplifting a sweater from a store. Using what you learned in this module, what do you think you might approach the situation?

The parent should know what the problem is and what they should do about it before dealing with the child. When you talk to a child you will be thinking that you will have a feeling when you talk and you will have more than that the child should have more feeling about what they are going to do.

4. What are families that support and resources in their child and community? What benefits do they provide to children?

Head Start is a center that helps a child develop to be successful in the program that the center. The center includes with children, education, and their well-being.

HeadStart is a national organization program that provides services to health care for families that would otherwise affect the care. The center also has health insurance programs for children who do not have other insurance. These insurance programs offer more care programs and can help families avoid expensive health care costs.
