forensic sciences and emergency management Climate Changed Mara Freilich,Irmak Turan,Jessica Varner,Lizzie Yarina,2025-07-15 Models change our worlds From global carbon flux models to regional coastal flood prediction maps climate related models influence how we know our environment how we build our cities and how we act on a climate altered planet Yet such models typically require specialized knowledge to navigate and because the climate crisis is inherently multidimensional technical expertise in isolation is not enough Climate Changed examines models and their imperfect yet central role in understanding the relationship between global climate dynamics and the human built environment It compares and synthesizes the methods and function of models in disciplines ranging from architecture and planning to climate science and natural hazards research This book considers how disparate models are woven together to understand the climate crisis underscoring the necessity of combining locally situated and transdisciplinary knowledge with climate science to navigate current and future cataclysmic changes It highlights the challenges and consequences of disciplinary boundaries siloed scientific knowledge and uneven data and develops ways to overcome these limitations As the world faces the effects of climate change climate scientists are debating the future of their field architects engineers and planners are designing in the context of climate change and society at large is grappling with how to take action This book brings those communities together to chart a path forward Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory Mathilde Köstler,2022-12-19 How does Cajun literature emerging in the 1980s represent the dynamic processes of remembering in Cajun culture Known for its hybrid constitution and deeply ingrained oral traditions Cajun culture provides an ideal testing ground for investigating the collective memory of a group In particular francophone and anglophone Cajun texts by such writers as Jean Arceneaux Tim Gautreaux Jeanne Castille Zachary Richard Ron Thibodeaux Darrell Bourque and Kirby Jambon reveal not only a shift from an oral to a written tradition They also show hybrid perspectives on the Cajun collective memory Based on recurring references to place the texts also reflect on the Acadian past and reveal the innate ability of the Cajuns to adapt through repeated intertextual references The Cajun collective memory is thus defined by a transnational outlook a transversality cutting across various ethnic heritages to establish and legitimize a collective identity both amid the linguistic and cultural diversity in Louisiana and in the face of American mainstream culture Cajun Literature and Cajun Collective Memory represents the first analysis of the mnemonic strategies Cajun writers use to explore and sustain the Cajun identity and collective memory They Played Rugby for New Zealand 1884-2023 Eric Lemon,2024-11-11 Over 500 pages of facts statistics and records of every match and every player for the New Zealand national Rugby Union team from the first match in May 1884 up to December 2023 Environmental Justice in a Moment of Danger Julie Sze,2020-01-07 Let this book immerse you in the many worlds of environmental justice Naomi Klein We are living in a precarious environmental and political moment In the United States and in the world environmental injustices have manifested across racial and class divides in devastatingly disproportionate ways What does this moment of danger mean for the environment and for justice What can we learn from environmental justice struggles Environmental Justice in a Moment of Danger examines mobilizations and movements from protests at Standing Rock to activism in Puerto Rico in the wake of Hurricane Maria Environmental justice movements fight survive love and create in the face of violence that challenges the conditions of life itself Exploring dispossession deregulation privatization and inequality this book is the essential primer on environmental justice packed with cautiously hopeful stories for the future Hurricane Maria in Puerto Rico Alberto Dávila, Marie T. Mora, Havidán Rodríguez, 2021-09-30 With its 155 mile per hour sustained windspeeds the near Category 5 Hurricane Maria brought catastrophic devastation and destruction as it diagonally crossed the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico from the southeast to the northwest on September 20 2017 The official death toll estimate of 2 975 lost lives means this record storm became one of the most devastating hurricanes not only for Puerto Rico but for the U S Many of these deaths as well as the prolonged human suffering were attributed to what was described as inadequate disaster response and slow restoration of basic services including running water electricity and the provision and distribution of food and medicine and not to the direct impact of the hurricane itself At the same time Hurricane Maria made landfall when Puerto Rico had been confronting a severe economic crisis surging for over a decade This crisis referred to as La Crisis Boricua was characterized by a significant loss of industry and jobs a deteriorating infrastructure record net outmigration a shrinking and rapidly aging population rising healthcare under coverage a bankrupt government and federal legislation restricting fiscal policy decisions made by elected officials on the island Thus Hurricane Maria exacerbated the effects of La Crisis Boricua on the socioeconomic health and demographic outcomes affecting Puerto Ricans on the island and U S mainland Bringing together scholars from a wide variety of disciplines including economics sociology demography health psychology disaster research political science education the arts and others this volume represents one of the first interdisciplinary sets of studies dedicated to analyzing the effects of Hurricane Maria on island and stateside Puerto Ricans Specific topics cover Hurricane Maria's impact on labor market outcomes including wages and employment by industry health implications including mental health changes in artistic expression civic engagement and disaster response and recovery A common thread through many of the chapters was the destruction of Puerto Rico's electrical grid and the prolonged restoration of electricity and other essential services that resulted in the loss of thousands of lives Recent Hurricane Research Anthony Lupo, 2011-04-19 This book represents recent research on tropical cyclones and their impact and a wide range of topics are covered An updated global climatology is presented including the global occurrence of tropical cyclones and the terrestrial factors that may contribute to the variability and long term trends in their occurrence Research also examines long term trends in tropical cyclone occurrences and intensity as related to solar activity while other research discusses the impact climate change may have on these storms The dynamics and structure of tropical cyclones are studied with traditional diagnostics employed to examine these as well as more modern approaches in examining their thermodynamics The book aptly demonstrates how new research into short range forecasting of tropical cyclone tracks and intensities using satellite information has led to significant improvements In looking at societal and ecological risks and damage assessment authors investigate the use of technology for anticipating and later evaluating the amount of damage that is done to human society watersheds and forests by land falling storms The economic and ecological vulnerability of coastal regions are also studied and are supported by case studies which examine the potential hazards related to the evacuation of populated areas including medical facilities These studies provide decision makers with a potential basis for developing improved evacuation techniques

The Complete Book of 2010s Broadway Musicals Dan Dietz,2020-09-10 This volume contains detailed information about every musical that opened on Broadway from 2010 through the end of 2019 This book discusses the decade s major successes notorious failures and musicals that closed during their pre Broadway tryouts In addition to including every hit and flop that debuted during the decade this book highlights revivals and personal appearance revues

Performance, Trauma and Puerto Rico in Musical Theatre Colleen Rua,2023-08-11 This study positions four musicals and their associated artists as mobilizers of defiant joy in relation to trauma and healing in Puerto Rico This book argues that the historical trajectory of these musicals has formed a canon of works that have reiterated resisted or transformed experiences of trauma through linguistic ritual and geographic interventions These traumas may be disaster related migrant related colonial or patriarchal Bilingualism and translation ritual action and geographic space engage moments of trauma natural disaster incarceration death and healing community celebration grieving emancipation in these works The musicals considered are West Side Story 1957 2009 2019 The Capeman 1998 In the Heights 2008 and Hamilton 2015 Central to this argument is that each of the musicals discussed is tied to Puerto Rico either through the representation of Puerto Rican characters and stories or through the Puerto Rican positionality of its creators The author moves beyond the musicals to consider Lin Manuel Miranda as an embodied site of healing that has been met with controversy as well as post Hurricane Maria relief efforts led by Miranda on the island and from a distance In each of the works discussed acts of belonging shape notions of survivorship and witness This book also opens a dialogue between these musicals and the work of island based artists Y no hab a luz that has served as sites of first response to disaster This book will be of interest to students and scholars in Latinx Theatre Musical Theatre and Translation studies

Necrogeopolitics Caroline Alphin,François Debrix,2019-10-08 Necrogeopolitics On Death and Death Making in International Relations brings together a diverse array of critical IR scholars political theorists critical security studies researchers and critical geographers to provide a series of interventions on the topic of death and death making in global politics Contrary to most existing scholarship this volume does not place the emphasis on traditional sources or large scale configurations of power force leading to death in IR Instead it details theorizes and challenges more mundane perhaps banal and often ordinary modalities of violence perpetrated against human lives and bodies and often contributing to horrific instances of death and destruction Concepts such as slow death soft killing superfluous bodies or extra ordinary destruction disappearance are brought to the fore by prominent voices in these fields alongside more junior creative thinkers to rethink the politics of life and death in the global polity away from dominant IR or political theory paradigms about power force and violence The volume features chapters that offer thought provoking reconsiderations of key concepts theories and practices about death and death making along with other chapters that seek to challenge some of these concepts theories or practices in settings that include the Palestinian territories Brazilian cities displaced population flows from the Middle East sites of immigration policing in North America and spaces of welfare politics in Scandinavian states

The Oryx Resource Guide to El Niño and La Niña Bloomsbury Publishing,2002-05-30 Fish die Seagulls starve Economies wither And that s just in the coastal villages El Ni o The Christ Child and its climatological opposite La Ni a are global events so powerful and strange they virtually have personalities Many remember the El Ni o seasons of 1982 83 and 1997 98 which brought floods tornadoes droughts and snow to unusual locales Increased study of these Tropical Pacific phenomena also known as ENSO the El Ni o and Southern Oscillation has now enabled scientists to predict the ENSO state as much as 12 to 18 months in advance and has helped to shape weather prediction in general Here the basic causes and effects of El Ni o and La Ni a are carefully chronicled for anyone in search of accurate and current information on these natural phenomena Chapters are devoted to the history of ENSO its influence on global weather and on the United States including the ecosystem and how governments and industries worldwide are utilizing new weather data to harness ENSO s economic impact rather than be saddled by it A chronology tours key events from the 15th century diary observations of colonists in Ecuador and Peru to recent events like the devastating El Ni o of 1997 98 which was responsible for 23 000 deaths and 33 billion in damages Biographies of important researchers illustrations and maps and an extensive bibliography help make this a total guide to these magnificent natural cycles
