Journaux Intimes Charlottenburg:

Amiel's Journal Henri Frédéric Amiel, 1889 Amiel's Journal; The Journal Intime of Henri-Frédéric Amiel Henri Frédéric Amiel, 2024-03-11 Reproduction of the original The publishing house Megali specialises in reproducing historical works in large print to make reading easier for people with impaired vision Journal Henri Frédéric Amiel, 1887 The French Fictional Journal Valerie Raoul, 1980 Unlike other forms of fictional first person narrative such as the memoir or epistolary novel the French fictional journal or diary novel has received inadequate critical attention This is the first full length analysis devoted to its particular features Valerie Raoul bases her study on the premise that the interest of the fictional journal lies in its subjugation of one set of conventions those of the diary to another set those of the novel and the interference of each of those codes in the function of the other In this context she discusses more than fifty novels or short stories wholly or partly in diary form and written in France between 1800 and the present In the first part of the book she deals with the fictivity of the diary novel Philippe Lejeune's work on the functioning of autobiography serves as a point of comparison to elucidate the distinctive reading pact involved in this aspect of first person fiction The second part analyses the internal communication model on this intradiegetic level the fictional diarist is narrator actor and narratee In the third part an abstract model is developed to illustrate the functioning of the fictional journal as a bi-textual form of communication in which the internal communications process is a mise en abyme of the external one between author character and reader The personal narcissism of the intimiste is seen to give way in the fictional journal intime to narcissistic fiction since diary novels are always the narration of the production of a recit This book is an important investigation into the very nature of fiction and the meaning of the activity of writing It not only fills an important gap in the appreciation of French prose but also adds to the comprehension of personal narrative in particular and narrative discourse in general The Turbulent World of Franz Göll Peter Fritzsche, 2011-07-14 Fritzsche traces twentieth century history through the remarkable diaries of an ordinary Berliner Franz Göll wrote of hungry winters during WWI the Berlin bombing rapes by Russian soldiers shockwaves cast by Darwin Freud and Einstein the flexing of U S superpower and the strange lifestyles that marked Germany's transition to modernity Christopher Isherwood Encyclopedia David Garrett Izzo, 2015-05-07 This comprehensive and accessible reference work serves Isherwood scholars who need quick access to people places novels stories essays and plays introduces Isherwood to those who know little of him expands the knowledge of the literate general reader and refreshes teachers of literature with Isherwood details Entries on Isherwood's most influential friends including W H Auden Aldous Huxley and Stephen Spender are significant Included are all of the monumental roles Isherwood exemplified during his life writer rebel gay activist hero and proud exponent of the Eastern philosophy known as Vedanta Ageing in Times of the COVID-19 Pandemic Julia Simonson, Jenna Wünsche, Clemens Tesch-Römer, 2023-06-01 This Open Access Book contains reports on the situation of people in the second half of life during the first year of the Covid 19 pandemic The analyses are based on the German Ageing Survey DEAS and they provide insights on four main areas of life income and work subjective health and well being social support and loneliness as well as societal participation This book is useful for scientists as well as political actors by directing attention to the risk groups that have been hard hit by the pandemic while also highlighting the resilience and adaptive capacities of many people in the second half of life Engineering and Mining Journal ,1922 Engineering and Mining Journal-press ,1922 Thirty Years After the Berlin Wall Ayline Heller,Peter Schmidt,2024-03-29 This book examines the increasing body of research dedicated to the lasting differences between the former separate states of the Federal German Republic FRG and the German Democratic Republic GDR Thirty years after the fall of the Berlin Wall it takes a broad view on German unification and transformation research Transformation and unification processes in East and West Germany are still ongoing and they may serve as a model for social change and its political economic and psychological consequences Using advanced statistical methods of analysis this edited volume provides insights into the valuable contextualization of individual and social phenomena that current research on German unification and transformation is producing Following the open science mindset using code and data the authors investigate temporal trends in 1 mental health 2 political attitudes and 3 work and family life It explores changes in mental health and political attitudes as well as continued differences in work and family arrangements that may stem from heterogeneous experiences within the systems and during the transformation process This book will appeal to scholars and students from the disciplines of sociology political science public health social psychology psychology and communication science interested in postsocialist transition processes and temporal changes in individuals and societies Journal - Institution of Municipal Engineers Institution of Municipal Engineers (Great Britain),1892 Living at Night in Times of Pandemic Anita Jóri,Guillaume Robin,2024-03-04 Club culture has become an ever growing interdisciplinary research field in the social sciences The contributors to this volume offer state of the art perspectives on night studies in France and Germany and the techno scene from a comparative and interdisciplinary perspective They explore three main areas scenes and communities diversity and inclusion and social and ecological challenges for a sustainable club culture during and after the COVID 19 pandemic British Medical Journal ,1900 The Street Railway Journal ,1924 Journal of Gas Lighting ,1917 , Science Communication in Times of Crisis Pascal Hohaus,2022-08-10 This volume addresses demands on external and internal science communication in times of crisis The contributions discuss present crises such as COVID 19 e g vaccination campaigns or political reactions towards the pandemic in the context of science scepticism and climate change e g plausibility judgements or the role of scientists They also relate their approaches to past crises e g 9 11 or the Galileo affair This volume is unique in that it is interdisciplinary from a theoretical and methodological perspective In that respect the authors apply concepts from corpus linguistics discourse analysis rhetoric news values analysis pragmatics and terminology research to various types of data such as newspaper headlines Tweets open letters corpora or glossaries The case studies are situated within different cultural contexts with various languages being examined i e Polish Arabic English French German and Spanish Elevating our understanding of the interface of science communication and crisis communication this collection of articles proves valuable to scholars and students from linguistics communication science political science sociology and philosophy of science

Urban Change and Citizenship in Times of Crisis Bryan S. Turner, Hannah Wolf, Gregor Fitzi, Jürgen Mackert, 2020-04-07 At times of triumphant neo liberalism cities increasingly become objects of financial speculation Formally social and political rights might not be abolished yet factually they have become inaccessible for large parts of the population The contributions gathered in this volume shed light on the clash between the perspectives of restructuring and reordering urban environments in the interest of investors and the manifold and innovative agencies of resistance that claim and stand up for the rights of urban citizenship Renewed waves of urban transformation employ state coercion to foster the expulsion of poor and marginalised inhabitants from those urban spaces that attract interest from speculators The intervention of state agencies triggers the work of hegemonic culture for reframing the housing issue and implementing moral and political legitimation as well as legislation that restricts urban citizenship rights The case studies of the volume comparatively show the different and sometimes contradictory patterns of these conflicts in Berlin Sydney Belfast Jerusalem Amsterdam and Istanbul as well as in metropolises of Latin America and China Innovative resistance agencies emerge that paint possible paths for the re establishment of the right to the city as the core of urban citizenship Asia-Europe

Industrial Connectivity in Times of Crisis Lucía Morales, Sam Dzever, Robert Taylor, 2022-12-09 The main objective of this book is to offer an overview and a critical assessment of current connectivity issues in Asia and Europe seen from an industrial perspective Critical insights into the contemporary debate on connectivity during times of crisis which has led to significant economic and social disruptions are offered throughout the book European and Asian countries seek to bounce forward and not bounce back as they navigate the complex economic recovery process Innovation and investment emerge as critical players to help an economic recovery that shifts towards a more resilient and environmentally friendly approach to ensure that the world economies stay connected The global health crisis has revealed that more than ever before ubiquitous connectivity underpinned by pioneering innovation is a must As such governments worldwide need to ensure that businesses and societies emerge stronger and more resilient from existing and emerging crises by laying solid foundations that help to circumnavigate future disruptions of a global magnitude

Crowds and Democracy Stefan Jonsson, 2013-10-08 Between 1918 and 1933 the masses became a decisive preoccupation of European culture fueling modernist movements in art literature architecture theater and cinema as well as the rise of communism fascism and experiments in radical democracy Spanning aesthetics cultural studies intellectual history and political theory this volume unpacks the significance of the shadow agent known as the mass during a critical period in European history It follows its evolution into the preferred conceptual tool for social scientists the ideal slogan for politicians and the chosen image for artists and writers trying to capture a society in flux and a people in upheaval This volume is the second installment in Stefan Jonsson's epic study of the crowd and the mass in modern Europe building on his work in A Brief History of the Masses which focused on monumental artworks produced in 1789 1889 and 1989
