

The Bhagavad Gita

Translated by Juan Mascaro

Penguin Classics

(This translation first published in 1962, my copy from 1974 –the 11th reprint.

My copy is falling apart as I have used it in school for 20 years, so writing it as a resource for everyone has been at the back of my mind for some time. I thank chartere23 for inspiring me to actually start on this project.

chartere23 (RE teacher, TES resources and forum) has a great selection of quotations to use with GCSE students from Hinduism and Christianity. I will highlight the sections which I have found most useful to use in school (marked in the margin of my copy). Some of these will make a valuable addition to charere23's great 'Holy Quible' resource.

Many if not most Hindus regard the Bhagavad Gita or 'Song Celestial' as the heart of Hindu teaching and the best loved Hindu scripture.

Durgamata Chaudhuri September 2011.)

From the Introduction

Page 35 The spiritual visions of man confirm and illumine each other. We have the cosmic greatness of Hinduism, the moral issues of Zoroaster, the joy in Truth of Buddha, the spiritual victory of Jainism, the simple love of Tao, the wisdom of Confucius, the poetry of Shintu, the One God of Israel, the redeeming radiance of Christianity, the glory of God of Islam, the harmony of the Sikhs. Great poems in different languages have different values but they are all poetry and the spiritual visions of man come all from One Light. In them we have Lamps of Fire that burn to the glory of God.

The finite in man longs for the Infinite. The love that moves the stars moves also the heart of man and a law of spiritual gravitation leads his soul to the Soul of the universe. Man sees the sun by the light of the sun and he sees the Spirit by the light of his own inner spirit. The radiance of eternal beauty shines over this vast universe and in moments of contemplation we can see the Eternal in things that pass away. This is the message of the great spiritual seers; all poetry and art and beauty is only an infinite variation of this message.

If we read the scriptures and books of wisdom of the world, if we consider the many spiritual experiences recorded in the writings of the past, we find one spiritual faith, and this faith is based on a vision of Truth. Not indeed the truth of the laws of nature,
