Southern Living No Taste Like Home Editors of Southern Living Magazine, 2013-10-08 There is no region of the country more cherished and unique when it comes to food than the South. Southerners celebrate our food traditions. They are totems of our collective identity. Our grits, our fried chicken, our sweet tea, our butterbeans, our biscuits. These are powerful symbols of not just of Southern tastes but also of Southern values of the kind of simple, honest to goodness home cooking prepared with generosity of spirit and served up with generosity of ladle. These recipes are what distinguish and bind Southern culture. No Taste Like Home embraces the cultural identity of towns large and small all throughout the South and provides readers with recipes, stories, and highlights of all the unique regional flavors from the Heartland of Dixie to Cajun Country, from The Coastal South to Bluegrass, Bourbon, and BBQ Country, and all points in between. Organized geographically, the cookbook focuses on each of 6 regions in the South. Every chapter will include highlights of specific towns and contain essays describing literally the flavor of the place. The highlighted towns will offer multiple recipes as well as musings from notable locals and locally famous chefs. Just some of the recurring editorial features include a travelogue introduction discussing regional specialties and folklore. Standout recipes from local chefs and almost famous home cooks. Musings from locals about their town. Hometown Flavor features on Southern iconic ingredients that are commonly used in the regional cuisine. What We're Craving features highlighting a local restaurant or town specific dish that locals crave when they're not at home. Local Know-how features of insider secrets from the locals from how to pick the freshest produce to the best way to prepare their own recipes.

The Paleo Diet In a Nutshell: With 230 Recipes Dave Le Couteur, The Paleolithic Diet has become more than a diet but an entire lifestyle. They took a group of volunteers and fed them a paleolithic diet for 10 days. Just 10 days. And they got amazing and significant results. Their conclusion: Even short term consumption of a paleolithic type diet improves BP and glucose tolerance, decreases insulin secretion, increases insulin sensitivity, and improves lipid profiles without weight loss in healthy sedentary humans. Eating a modern diet, on the other hand, makes you more susceptible to cancer, coronary heart disease, diabetes, and many other modern day diseases. Research shows that 70% of the average caloric intake of an American family is from products that were never around for our Paleolithic ancestors.

Part 1: Paleo Diet in a Nutshell

Benjamin,2016-12-29 As our six children moved out I would often receive a phone call asking Mom how did you make this What was the secret ingredient As a child I would watch my Mother cook and preserve fruit can and freeze vegetables bake and have family get together s to make Perogys I enjoyed cooking when I first took it in Junior High School and started to collect recipes I did a lot of family history and over the years I also was given many recipes from the family members plus saved many from other resources My Stepfather taught me the cooking of wild game to make it tender When I got married we had our own garden plus raised cattle chickens turkeys pigs rabbits and even tried ostriches We did our own butchering and I learned from my husband s boss how to do make headcheese from the pigs I made cottage cheese and butter from our milk cow I made sourdough from scratch also From our garden we froze a lot of the crop for the winter The fruit we grew got made into jams and jellies as well as the wild fruit that we picked Often we would go picking berries as a family outing or while Roy and I were haying the children would pick wild berries near the fields We would have a treat of fruit at the end of the day and the excess got made into preserves or into juice My one challenge was making bread even with a bread machine It never turned out Roy took over that challenge and got a recipe figured out that even now I cannot fail making bread The Grandchildren loved helping him make buns When Roy passed away I tried the recipe and when the Grandchildren tried the bread their remark was It taste s just like Grandpa s bread My recipes were in several boxes and I knew where the ones were that I used the most When I started entering my collection into a computer Roy suggested I should make a cookbook because I had a collection of over a century of recipes I have done that now and the collection has recipes from early 1900 s with the old way of the size of the ingredients like amount of butter the size of an egg up to modern amounts I also have enclosed tips that were given to me over the years plus a few old poems that have a special meaning to me
