Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1962 Anchorhold Kirsten Pinto Gfroerer, 2022-07-28 Anchorhold is a unique collection of letters concerning Julian of Norwich's Revelations of Divine Love addressed to the writer herself Through them Kirsten Pinto Gfroerer explores the meaning of her own life and the transformation that studying and teaching this remarkable text can bring Julian makes extreme claims about the love of God revealed in the crucified Christ Her assertion that in love the human self can truly flourish and that in the end all shall be well and all manner of things shall be well is a hope filled contradiction of much modern thought Central to her theology are a series of meditations on the face and body of Christ which both point to God's love and reveal something of the nature of human vocation Gfroerer's search for meaning in Julian's text eloquently expressed in this series of letters involves the participation of her whole self learning to inhabit the vision given to Julian It is this search and participation that we are invited to join The Reform Advocate, 1928 Frederick Douglass and the Philosophy of Religion Timothy J. Golden, 2021-12-06 Frederick Douglass and the Philosophy of Religion An Interpretation of Narrative Art and the Political addresses Douglass's narrative method and the reformed epistemology of analytic theism within the context of Incarnational theology Timothy J Golden argues that in this context Douglass's use of narrative maintains a robust moral social and political engagement and thus a closer connection to an authentic Christian theology in a way that analytic theism does not To show this contrast Golden presents existential and phenomenological interpretations of Douglass reading him alongside Kierkegaard Kafka and Levinas Golden concludes the book with reflection on how Douglass's Incarnational theology connects to his future philosophical and theological work which understands consciousness subjectivity as saturated in time understood as history Golden argues that the resulting view of consciousness helps to overcome abstraction in a variety of philosophical subfields including jurisprudence and gender studies Going Global Amal Amireh, Lisa Suhair Majaj, 2014-05-01 This book explores the problematic of reading and writing about third world women and their texts in an increasingly global context of production and reception The ten essays contained in this volume examine the reception both academic and popular of women writers from India Bangladesh Palestine Egypt Algeria Ghana Brazil Bolivia Guatemala Iraq Israel and Australia The essays focus on what happens to these writers poetry fiction biography autobiography and even to the authors themselves as they move between the third and first worlds The essays raise general questions about the politics of reception and about the transnational character of cultural production and consumption This edition also provides analyses of the reception of specific texts and of their authors in their context of origin as well as the diverse locations in which they are read The essays participate in on going discussions about the politics of location about postcolonialism and its discontents and about the projects of feminism and multiculturalism in a global age Adapted for the Screen Hsiu-Chuang Deppman, 2010-04-30 Contemporary Chinese films are popular with audiences worldwide but a key reason for their success has gone unnoticed many of the films are adapted from brilliant literary works This book is the first to put these landmark films in the context of their literary origins and explore how the best Chinese directors adapt fictional narratives and styles for film Hsiu Chuang Deppman unites aesthetics with history in her argument that the rise of cinema in China Hong Kong and Taiwan in the late 1980s was partly fueled by burgeoning literary movements Fifth Generation director Zhang Yimou s highly acclaimed films Red Sorghum Raise the Red Lantern and To Live are built on the experimental works of Mo Yan Su Tong and Yu Hua respectively Hong Kong new wave s Ann Hui and Stanley Kwan capitalized on the irresistible visual metaphors of Eileen Chang s postrealism Hou Xiaoxian s new Taiwan cinema turned to fiction by Huang Chunming and Zhu Tianwen for fine grained perspectives on class and gender relations Delving equally into the individual approaches of directors and writers Deppman initiates readers into the exciting possibilities emanating from the world of Chinese cinema The seven in depth studies include a diverse array of forms cinematic adaptation of literature literary adaptation of film auto adaptation and non narrative adaptation and a variety of genres martial arts melodrama romance autobiography documentary drama Complementing this formal diversity is a geographical range that far exceeds the cultural linguistic and physical boundaries of China The directors represented here also work in the U S and Europe and reflect the growing international resources of Chinese language cinema With her sophisticated blend of stylistic and historical analyses Deppman brings much needed nuance to current conversations about the politics of gender class and race in the work of the most celebrated Chinese writers and directors Her pioneering study will appeal to all readers general and academic who have an interest in Chinese literature cinema and culture communicating for establishing intellectual power for generating musical tastes and for enhancing the quality of their lives Some women performed publicly and thus some articles examine how this impacted on their lives and families Other contributors inquire about the economics of music and women and how in different situations some women may have been financially empowered or even in control of their own money making This collection offers a glimpse at women from home stage work and convent from many classes and from culturally diverse countries including France Spain Italy England Austria Russia and Mexico and imagines a musical history centered in the realities of those lives Catalog of Copyright Entries ,1941 Chic ,
