Research Handbook on Transnational Labour Law Adelle Blackett, Anne Trebilcock, 2015-09-25 The editors substantive introduction and the specially commissioned chapters in the Handbook explore the emergence of transnational labour law as a field along with its contested contours The expansion of traditional legal methods such as treaties is juxtaposed with the proliferation of contemporary alternatives such as indicators framework agreements and consumer led initiatives Key international and regional institutions are studied for their coverage of such classic topics as freedom of association equality and sectoral labour standard setting as well as for the space they provide for dialogue The volume underscores transnational labour law's capacity to build bridges including on migration climate change and development

International Migration in Southeast Asia Kwen Fee Lian, Md Mizanur Rahman, Yabit bin Alas, 2015-10-24 This book is a collection of work by migration scholars and researchers who are actively conducting fieldwork in Southeast Asia It presents a wide variety of current research and approaches the field of international labor migration from a regional perspective acknowledging that the migration process goes beyond local and national boundaries and is embedded in regional and global interconnections The chapters capture the complexity and richness of the migration phenomenon and experience which manifests itself in a multitude of ways in a region well known for its diversity The collection highlights the continuities and discontinuities in the linkages that have been forged through the movement of people between sending and receiving societies Such linkages are explained by distinguishing between migration that has been sustained by a colonial past and migration that has been precipitated by globalization in the last two decades The diversity of issues in the region covered by this volume will encourage a rethink of some of the conventional views of migration scholarship and result in a more critical reflection of how we approach migration research Decisions and Orders of the National Labor Relations Board United States. National Labor Relations Board,2015 The Routledge Handbook of Hotel Chain Management Maya Ivanova,Stanislav Ivanov,Vincent P. Magnini,2016-05-05 Understanding the global hotel business is not possible without paying specific attention to hotel chain management and dynamics Chains are big business approximately 80 percent of hotels currently being constructed around the world are chain affiliated and in 2014 the five largest brands held over a one million rooms The high economic importance of the hotel chains and their global presence justifies the academic research in the field however despite this there is no uniform coverage in the current body of literature This Handbook aids in filling the gap by exploring and critically evaluates the debates issues and controversies of all aspects of hotel chains from their nature fundamentals of existence and operation expansion strategic and operational aspects of their activities and geographical presence It brings together leading specialists from range of disciplinary backgrounds and regions to provide state of the art theoretical reflection and empirical research on current issues and future debates Each of the five inter related section explores and evaluates issues that are of extreme importance to hotel chain management focusing on theoretical issues the expansion of hotel chains strategic and operational issues the view point of the individual affiliated hotel and finally the current and future debates in the theory and practice of hotel chain management arising from globalisation demographic trends sustainability and new technology development It provides an invaluable resource for all those with an interest in hotel management hospitality tourism and business encouraging dialogue across disciplinary boundaries and areas of study This is essential reading for students researchers and academics of Hospitality as well as those of Tourism Marketing Business and Events Management
