(Hornbill) (Chapter 1) (Poem) (A Photograph) (Class – XI)

Question 6:

What does "this circumstance" refer to?

Answer 6:

"This circumstance" refers to the present scenario when she has lost her mother and those days can't come back. That snapshot brought joy to her mother's face and she eagerly shared the details of the trip with her daughter. That was a beautiful moment which is no more. This shows that everything is temporary in human life and nothing is permanent.

Question 7:

The three stanzas depict three different phases. What are they?

Answer 7:

The three different stages depict three phases in lives. First phase is the childhood phase of poet's mother who was just twelve when she went with cousins for a holiday on beach and she had a great vacation. The other phase is when she got married after some years; she became parent and happily tells the story of her vacation to poet, her daughter. The third phase was when the poet has grown up and her mother has passed away and now only her memories remain.
