European Cities and Global Competitiveness Peter Karl Kresl,Daniele Ietri,2012 Europe is in a troubled state The macroeconomic situation looks grim national governments are close to dysfunction and Europeans are facing austerity and relative decline The one bright spot on the horizon is the potential for positive action at the level of the city and urban regions In this book the editors have assembled a collection of original contributions by scholars from Europe North America and Asia who offer insights as to how local authorities in Europe might be able to chart a course for their city or urban region during this period of extraordinary difficulty The volume begins with an Introduction followed by a set of three papers in Part Two examining European urban competitiveness from the standpoints of measurement and policy This section also provides a case study of the cities of one country _ Italy _ from which the reader can gain an understanding of the current position of European cities as well as what might be possible going forward Experience has shown that perhaps the most crucial element in competitiveness enhancement is good and effective governance To that end Part Three examines structural aspects of urban government including polycentric regions wide metropolitan cooperation the role of social actors and territorial aggregation Part Four treats issues of innovation from two perspectives and provides a case study from Eindhoven while also covering social issues such as demographics participation social exclusion and mobility This set of scholarly reflections will be of considerable benefit to urban practitioners researchers and students of public policy

The Right Place Arturo Bris, 2021-07-28 The Right Place explains why firms succeed in one country and fail in another irrespective of their inner drivers and suggests potential initiatives that governments can take to help the private sector create jobs and consequently make their countries more prosperous The competitiveness race is not unlike a cycling race If you want to ride fast you need three things a good bike to be in good shape and a smooth and fast road In a collaborative model you might say the business is the bicycle the business leader is the cyclist and the road is the government and the external environment The responsibility of a government is to design and build the best possible road It turns out that when the road is good good cyclists suddenly appear and want to race on it In this book competition and macroeconomics expert Arturo Bris provides the analysis of country competitive performance based on 30 years advising countries on this topic The typical mistakes that countries make are revealed and the pillars necessary in building a competitive economy economic performance as a necessary condition for prosperity government efficiency so the public sector can create the conditions for a productive economy business efficiency so companies can create jobs and infrastructure both tangible and intangible so businesses and individuals can operate efficiently With contemporary case studies throughout the book provides an illuminating read for politicians business leaders and students of macroeconomics

The Evolution of Economic Development in Africa Francis K. Mbroh, 2021-07-11 Within the theoretical framework of the trade growth and structural transformation growth nexuses the book examines the evolution of African goods and service trade in terms of value and share of global commerce relative to other regions during the period 1948 2017 It also identifies and discusses discernible changes in the composition and structure of African exports and imports between 1995 and 2015 and their implications for economic development in Africa The study attributes Africa's laggard trade performance during the period primarily to sub optimal macroeconomic policies and lack of bold export development policies and initiatives among other factors It also offers an incisive discussion of several inhibitions to the structural transformation of African exports and imports including lack of finance globalization tariff and non tariff measures in global markets The discussion of the evolution of African trade during the period 1948 2017 based on statistics and publications of international organizations including the UNCTAD the World Bank and the African Development Bank among others is the first of its kind in terms of scope and depth of review of African trade The analyses of cross border trade during 1948 2017 and their implications for Africa's economic development prospects constitute a useful reference material for academics and students of African and development studies and African and international policymakers

The New Climate Policies of the European Union Sebastian Oberthür, 2010 This volume provides a timely overview and assessment of the development of the new EU climate policies with a focus on the new climate and energy package Are EU climate policies sufficient to meet the environmental economic and political challenge posed by global climate change How do international and domestic climate policies of the EU interact and are they mutually supportive What are the prospects for the EU keeping its international leadership in the face of a more engaged US and increasingly assertive emerging economies In addressing these questions the volume aims to enhance understanding and contribute to further discussions on the current and potential role of the EU in the fight against climate change Back cover

Darwin's Medicine Brian D. Smith, 2016-10-14 Darwin's Medicine is the sequel to Brian D Smith's influential and critically acclaimed Future of Pharma Gower 2011 Whereas the earlier book predicted the evolution of the pharmaceutical market and the business models of pharmaceutical companies Darwin's Medicine goes much deeper into the drivers of industry change and how leading pharmaceutical and medical technology companies are adapting their strategies structures and capabilities in practice Through the lens of evolutionary science Professor Smith explores the speciation of new business models in the Life Sciences Industry This sophisticated and highly original approach offers insights into The mechanisms of evolution in this exceptional industry The six great technological and social shifts that are shaping its landscape The emergence of 26 distinct new business models and The lessons that enable firms to direct and accelerate their own evolution These insights map out the industry's complex changing landscape and provide an invaluable guide to those firms seeking to survive and thrive in this dynamic market The book is essential reading for anyone working in or studying the pharmaceutical medical technology and related sectors It provides a unique and novel way of making sense of the transformation we can see going on around us and a practical focused approach to managing a firm's evolutionary trajectory Responsible Leadership Nicola M. Pless, Thomas Maak, 2012-11-27 These chapters on Responsible Leadership represent the latest thinking on a topic of increasing relevance in a connected world There are many challenges that still remain when it comes to establishing responsible leadership both in theory and practice Whilst offering conceptualisations for the improvement of leadership is a first and perhaps easier response what is more difficult is to facilitate the actual change to happen These chapters will not only generate interest in the emerging domain of studies on responsible leadership but also will pave the way for future research in this area in the years to come Previously Published in the Journal of Business Ethics Volume 98 Supplement 2 2011 Global Talent Management Hugh Scullion, David Collings, 2011-04-27 This book draws on recent theoretical contributions in the area of global talent management and presents an up to date and critical review of the key issues which MNEs face Beyond exploring some key overarching issues in global talent management the book discusses the key emerging issue around global talent management in key economies such as China India the Middle East and Eastern Europe In contrast to many of the currently available texts in the area of global talent management which are descriptive and lacking theoretical rigor this text emphasizes the critical understanding of global talent management in an organizational context Drawing on contributions from the leading figures in the field it will aid students practitioners and researchers alike in gaining a well grounded and critical overview of the key issues surrounding global talent management from a theoretical and practical perspective
