addition she makes the case that Hotho's compilation not only concealed this circumstance by the harmony he created out of diverse source materials but also imposed some of his own views on aesthetics views that differ from Hegel's and that the ongoing interpretation of the aesthetics part of Hegel's philosophy has unfortunately taken to be Hegel's own This translation of the German volume which contains the first publication of the Hotho transcript and Gethmann Siefert's essay makes these important materials accessible to the English reader materials that should put the English speaking world's future understanding and interpretation of Hegel's philosophy of art on a sounder footing
