

Emergency!

Today you are going to write a narrative (a story). The topic of your story is an 'emergency'. Your story might be about a rescue mission with emergency services, such as the police, fire brigade or ambulance. You might have just witnessed an accident or it could be that you have just got to school and realised that you have left your homework on the kitchen bench and it was due today.

Think about:

- what the heading/title is,
- the orientation or introduction,
- the types of characters and setting,
- the complication or problem,
- the sequence or series of events,
- the resolution or conclusion - how will the story end?

Remember to:

- plan your story,
- write in sentences,
- focus on your spelling, punctuation, grammar and paragraphs,
- check your spelling and edit your writing when you have finished.

Scanlon, 2014-12-17 Education issues feature almost daily in print media online on the radio and on television much of which focuses on the perceived deficits of students and teachers Singled out for special attention are low socio economic status SES schools which are frequently characterised by teachers and students with little investment in learning and teaching Yet within this plethora of educational discussion there is no contemporary longitudinal study of what it means to learn and teach in a disadvantaged school within the policy context of the education revolution in Australia Drawing on 500 interviews conducted over a four period with the Principal parents teachers and students at a regional low SES school this book challenges the profile of one school as represented on the My School website which publishes the results of National Assessment Program in Literacy and Numeracy NAPLAN Chapters situate the original research within an international and national educational context before exploring topics including leadership and management student behaviour constructs of the good teacher the involvement of parents in school and the digital revolution The book closes with an appraisal of the major themes that emerged from the multiple perspectives of the study This is the first book to provide a longitudinal ethnographic study of a school in Australia which examines the impact of the education revolution on the Principal parents teachers and students It comprehensively challenges the official My School representation of a low SES school and will appeal to researchers in education as well as those involved in postgraduate teacher education and sociology courses both from Australia and internationally Research in Mathematics Education in Australasia 2012-2015 Katie

Makar, Shelley Dole, Jana Visnovska, Merrilyn Goos, Anne Bennison, Kym Fry, 2016-06-02 With the ninth edition of the four yearly review of mathematics education research in Australasia the Mathematics Education Research Group of Australasia MERGA discusses the Australasian research in mathematics education in the four years from 2012 2015 This review aims to critically promote quality research and focus on the building of research capacity in Australasia The Routledge

Handbook of Language Education Curriculum Design Peter Mickan, Ilona Wallace, 2019-12-23 Curriculum design options cover a continuum from regional and school based programs to national and international frameworks How does policy speak to practice What have teacher researchers discovered through in classroom studies Where do you begin to describe or measure effective language education curriculum design The Routledge Handbook of Language Education

Curriculum Design presents a comprehensive collection of essays on these issues by 31 established practitioners and new researchers Informed by experienced scholarship and fresh studies this handbook shares international perspectives on language education from policy and curriculum to teacher training and future directions The handbook addresses language education curriculum design across five sections Language curriculum design perspectives policies and practices Designs across the curriculum Curriculum designs in language education Curriculum resources evaluation and assessment Teacher education research and future projects With contributions from Australia Brazil Indonesia Switzerland Timor Leste and more the handbook represents the breadth of research into and the global implications for sound language education curriculum design It considers equally the needs of students and policy makers from urban metropolises and remote communities It is designed to reinvigorate discussions about education policy curriculum management and the role of teacher researchers

Engaging with Educational Change Alma Fleet, Katey De Gioia, Catherine Patterson, 2016-06-16 Including narratives of practice across diverse Australian settings Engaging with Educational Change fills a gap in the current educational change literature Building on the experience of the authors and their colleagues this book illustrates the power of practitioner inquiry to facilitate positive practice improving change and suggests how others might use this methodology to extend current thinking and evaluation The book includes the voices of practitioners and academics working with a diverse range of age groups and settings across public and private educational contexts including primary schools preschools and childcare centres This multi perspective real research helps inform and inspire people from a range of backgrounds and expertise who want to facilitate practitioner inquiry initiatives themselves The book begins by introducing practitioner inquiry exploring the principles of inquiry based practice and issues of data alongside the landscapes of educational change Chapters in part two then offer real life case studies highlighting experiences of using practitioner inquiry or supporting those working with these methods to improve educational practice and ultimately the outcomes for children The chapters include case studies of pedagogical leadership and the exploration of issues related to sustaining educational change The final section concludes the book by critically reflecting upon practitioner inquiry and providing guidance for those interested in this change methodology Investigating issues that arise during implementation of practitioner inquiry initiatives Engaging with Educational Change provides both critique and assistance for students and practitioners applying the process in their own settings

The Art and Heart of Good Teaching Terence Lovat, 2019-07-22 This book summarizes and updates findings from the Australian Values Education Program with a focus on the latest international research in the field both theoretical and practice based Further it provides a theoretical and practical basis for understanding the disenchantment with low level accountability approaches to learning e g NAPLAN in Australia In turn the book demonstrates the effectiveness of Values Education as a holistic pedagogy with the potential to enhance students learning effects in terms of their personal social emotional and academic development It offers well tested alternative pedagogical approaches based on research insights largely originating from actual classroom based practice      School Reform in an Era of Standardization Ian Hardy,2020-12-29 School Reform in an Era of Standardization explores how teachers and school based administrators navigate the processes of accountability and standardization in schooling systems and settings It provides clear insights into how the work and learning of teachers and students in schools have been dramatically reconstituted by increased pressures of external political scrutiny and accountability The book reveals in detail the nature and effects of standardization processes upon schools and schooling systems Specifically it shows how curriculum development teaching and assessment practices have all been recalibrated under conditions of increased external scrutiny of teacher and student work and learning and how such processes are manifest in curriculum dominated by attention to literacy and numeracy more scripted pedagogies and standardized testing However the research not only elaborates the detrimental effects of such processes but also how those responsible for educating in schools teachers heads of curriculum deputy principals and principals have responded proactively by interpreting interrogating and challenging these conditions In this way it provides resources for hope evidence of what are described as more authentic accountabilities and at the same time it provides a clear portrait of the difficulty of fostering substantive curriculum teaching and assessment reform during an era of increasingly reductive accountability processes It will be an invaluable resource for understanding and enhancing practices in schools and school systems in the decades to come and for giving hope to educators in the ongoing work of rebuilding trust in public education      Education Game Changers Karen E. Starr,2014-12-08 Education Game Changers is written for an international readership This book refers to all education levels and sectors and builds on research in educational leadership education business and organizational change Karen E Starr describes policy paradoxes challenging the sustainability of educational provision as we know it and the imperatives they present for educational leadership business and governance This book critiques the paradoxical education policy context while exploring alternative futures they may spawn It ponders both possibilities and pitfalls that cannot be ignored by instrumental players such as governments policy makers educational leaders and business managers researchers and analysts This book unveils rising cases of education business failures around the world the paucity of governance and business skill on educational boards and the irrational contradictions faced by governments in determining education policy      Authentic Assessment and Evaluation Approaches and Practices in a Digital Era ,2021-09-06 In this book 37 international academics illustrate how authentic assessment is an effective measure of intellectual achievement as it requires the demonstration of deep understanding and complex problem solving through the performance of exemplary tasks By exploring the concept of authentic assessment in both tertiary and school education the authors in these chapters argue that authentic assessment is not only the measurement of significant intellectual accomplishments but also an important pedagogical structure Authentic assessment is a concept more closely defined as an umbrella term that seeks to immerse learners in environments where they can gain highly practical and lifelong learning skills Authentic assessment has been on the educational agenda for a number of years and keeps being a powerful tool for assessing students 21st century competencies in the context of global educational reforms Contributors are Pinar Akyildiz Fatma Nur Akta Chrysoula Arcoudis Tasos Barkatsas Michael Belcher Antonios Bouras Athina Chalkiadaki Jere Confrey Rebecca Cooper Yksel Dede Paul Denny Zara Ersozlu Ivan Fortunato Linda Hobbs Marj Horne Fragkiskos Kalavasis Katerina Kasimatis Belinda Kennedy Gillian Kidman Huk Yuen Law Susan Ledger Kathy Littlewood Jiabo Liu Michelle Ludecke Tricia McLaughlin Juanjo Mena Andreas Moutsios Rentzos Greg Oates Anastasia Papadopoulou Fabiano Pereira dos Santos Angela Rogers Grinne Ryan Rebecca Seah Meetal Shah Hazel Tan Naomi Wilks Smith Dallas Wingrove Qiaoping Zhang and Xiaolei Zhang
