Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli,2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East Sasan

Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers' encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian-Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran. The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought. He also studies Muslim-Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non-governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals: Abdol Karim Soroush, Mostafa Malekian and Mojtaba Shabestari. Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post-revolution Iran, Tavassoli relates concrete religious, cultural and socio-political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi'i-Islam-Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world.
