A Life in Balkan Archaeology John Chapman, 2021-10-13 This memoir is not really about research questions or main conclusions It tells the story of a boy growing up in Plymouth Devon getting excited about archaeology after visits to mainland Greece and Crete trying to get into Greek archaeology and relocating northwards into the Balkans where he spent a career in prehistoric research The chapters alternate between museum university experiences and my major research projects The experiences of working in that part of the world as the Third Balkan War was starting were dramatic and a history style chapter is devoted to these beginnings The Balkan prehistoric club in the west is a very small and select group so there is an intrinsic interest about how westerners did their archaeology there and how they interacted with local colleagues There is also a sense of a colonial relationship between westerners knowledgeable about theory and method with well stocked libraries and large research grants and easterners with little of the above On a basic level the memoir presents stories with implications for east west relationships that will soon disappear from living memory The ways that research projects originated and developed are strongly featured and there is a fund of anecdotes about prehistorians living and dead The publication of this memoir records those fragments of the discipline's history that are in danger of being lost forever But my life story is not erased from this account which is not an anthropological work but rather a participant account with a modicum of relevant personal details The book providing the archaeological results is the publication Forging identities in the prehistory of Old Europe Dividuals individuals and communities 7000 3000 BC a synthesis of academic research in Balkan prehistory This memoir provides the insider story to the research results Federal Register ,1987-01-02 The Autocar ,1973 East Kent Road Car Company Ltd Richard Wallace,2016-02-29 East Kent Road Car Company Ltd A Century of Service 1916 2016 celebrates one hundred years of a bus operation that is still very much recognizable for its origins Unlike so many proud names that have disappeared in recent times the old identity of East Kent Road Car Co Ltd is still carried as the legal lettering on the Stagecoach owned buses operating in the area today This book takes the reader on a journey through those one hundred years It covers the initial developments of the 1920s and 30s the challenges of World War II the halcyon days of the 1950s and the descent into the economic struggles of the 1960s Nationalization and an eventual move back into the private sector are also covered finishing with a description of the innovative approach to new services developed by the local Stagecoach management today With over two hundred illustrations both black and white and colour many previously unpublished this book provides a wide ranging historical and pictorial record of the buses artefacts and operations of the East Kent Road Car Company Fully illustrated with over 200 colour and black white illustrations many previously unpublished The Lost Subways of North America Jake Berman,2023-11-03 A visual exploration of the transit histories of twenty three US and Canadian cities Every driver in North America shares one miserable soul sucking universal experience being stuck in traffic But things weren t always like this Why is it that the mass transit systems of most cities in the United States and Canada are now utterly inadequate The Lost Subways of North America offers a new way to consider this eternal question with a strikingly visual and fun journey through past present and unbuilt urban transit Using meticulous archival research cartographer and artist Jake Berman has successfully plotted maps of old train networks covering twenty three North American metropolises ranging from New York City s Civil War era plan for a steam powered subway under Fifth Avenue to the ultramodern automated Vancouver SkyTrain and the thousand mile electric railway system of pre World War II Los Angeles He takes us through colorful maps of old often forgotten streetcar lines lost ideas for never built transit and modern rail systems drawing us into the captivating transit histories of US and Canadian cities Berman combines vintage styling with modern printing technology to create a sweeping visual history of North American public transit and urban development With more than one hundred original maps accompanied by essays on each city s urban development this book presents a fascinating look at North American rapid transit systems Bristol City Buses Mike Walker,2014-03-15 An image based history of the buses in Bristol Eastern National David Moth,2018-08-15 A lavishly illustrated look at the last years of the famous Eastern National brand with previously unpublished images
