Bulletin of the New York Public Library New York Public Library, 1917 Includes its Report 1896 19 Military Review, 1930 The Siege of Sevastopol, 1854-1855 Anthony Dawson, 2017-06-30 A history of the grueling Crimean War battle as told through personal accounts of those who fought there The Crimean War the most destructive and deadly war of the nineteenth century has been the subject of countless books yet historian Anthony Dawson has amassed an astonishing collection of previously unknown and unpublished material including numerous letters and private journals Many untapped French sources reveal aspects of the fighting in the Crimea that have never been portrayed before The accounts demonstrate the suffering of the troops during the savage winter and the ravages of cholera and dysentery that resulted in the deaths of more than 16 000 British troops and 75 000 French Whilst there is graphic first hand testimony from those that fought up the slopes of the Alma in the valley of death at Balaklava and the fog of Inkerman the book focusses upon the siege the great artillery bombardments the storming of the Redan and the Mamelon and the largest man made hole in history up to that time when the Russians blew up the defences they could not hold with their own men inside The Siege of Sevastopol also highlights for the first time the fourth major engagement in the Crimea the Battle of the Tchernaya in August 1855 the Russians last great attempt to break the siege This predominantly French fought battle has never before examined in such in English language books Praise for The Siege of Sevastopol 1854 1855 In this fascinating book the voices of men involved in the war in the Crimea are heard for the first time Compelling and intriguing stuff Books Monthly The author has collected a large amount of previously unpublished material for this new work Entries from private letters and journal are mixed with French sources previously unused in the English speaking world The result is a work that effectively conveys the thoughts and experiences of the participants to the reader Warfare History Network Quarterly Review of Military Literature, 1936 General Maurice Sarrail, 1856-1929 Jan Karl Tanenbaum, 2018-08-25 Commander of the French Third Army at the Battle of the Marne commander of the Allied Eastern Army in 1916 17 and high commissioner to Syria and Lebanon in 1924 25 Sarrail was one of the most controversial figures of the Third French Republic because of his deep involvement with domestic politics Unlike the majority of twentieth century military officers however he was an ardent supporter of Republican ideals and closely associated with the political Left Originally published 1974 A UNC Press Enduring Edition UNC Press Enduring Editions use the latest in digital technology to make available again books from our distinguished backlist that were previously out of print These editions are published unaltered from the original and are presented in affordable paperback formats bringing readers both historical and cultural value The Battle - Book 3 Frédéric Richaud, Patrick Rambaud, 2021-05-20T00:00:00+02:00 Napoleon is furious It appears the battle can no longer be won The French cavalry is so exhausted it can t even gallop when charging Ammunition is running out while losses mount horrifically both in men and in irreplaceable officers But the Austrians have paid an equally steep price and a complete defeat may yet be avoided Louis
