Open and Distance Learning in the Developing World Hilary Perraton, 2012-11-12 This revised and updated edition of Open and Distance Learning in the Developing World sets the expansion of distance education in the context of general educational change and explores its use for basic and non formal education schooling teacher training and higher education Engaging with a range of topics this comprehensive overview includes new material on non formal education mass communication approaches to education about HIV AIDS and recent literacy work in India South Africa and Zambia schooling new research projects in open schooling in Asia and subsaharan Africa and interactive radio instruction in South Africa the impact of new technology and globalisation learning delivered through the internet and mobile learning the political economy international agencies the role of private sector and funding With its critical appraisal of the facts and examination of data about effectiveness this book provides answers to problems and poses key questions for the consideration of policy makers educational practitioners and all professionals involved in implementing and delivering sustainable open and distance learning Namibian Books in Print, 2004 Report on Activities Working Group of Indigenous Minorities in Southern Africa, 2004 Debates of the National Assembly Namibia. Parliament. National Assembly (1990-), 2007 Global Capital's 21st Century Repositioning Rewai Makamani, Artwell Nhemachena, 2021-03-11 What happens at the interface between Afrocentricity and COVID 19 is cause for wonder in a world that is anxious to short circuit global solidarity by trampling Pan Africanism Revolutions including the Fourth Industrial Revolution are rarely contextualised within the framework of Pan Africanism and Afrocentricity even when they are celebrated as beneficial to the world Interfacing Afrocentricity COVID 19 Pan Africanism and the Fourth Industrial Revolution this book teases out the profound challenges of the 21st century Calling for African solutions premised on African solidarity the book critically engages the contemporary technological solutionism and technological evangelism that undergirds the Fourth Industrial Revolution and efforts to find vaccines for COVID 19 Unflinchingly interrogating these issues the book is useful for scholars and activists in education African languages sociology social anthropology political science history religious studies development studies communication medical sciences and legal studies Medium Term Expenditure Framework Namibia, 2004 Government Information Bulletin Namibia, 2008-03 Namibia Review, Owners of Learning Jennifer Hays, 2016 This book describes the Nyae Nyae Village Schools an innovative and unique mother tongue education initiative set in north eastern Namibia Inspired by the optimism of Independence the project was designed in close consultation with the Ju hoansi community in the early 1990s Drawing upon their traditional knowledge transmission strategies and initiated in a supportive political environment the project exemplified best practice During the following two decades the Village Schools have transitioned from a donor supported project to government schools and have received much attention and support from donors civil society organisations researchers and others However the students still do not seem to succeed in the mainstream schools Why is this Based on long term field work in the region including interviews with Nyae Nyae residents over several years and work with involved organisations the book addresses this question Contextualising the Village Schools within post Independence Namibia southern African history and the global indigenous rights movement it examines the enormous paradoxes that schooling presents for the Nyae Nyae community Owners of Learning is the English translation of the Ju hoansi word for teacher and it serves to highlight a fundamental question to whom does education belong
