

To let me blood, and not restore What I have lost with cordial fruit? Sure there was wine Before my sighs did dry it: there was corn Before my tears did drown it. Is the year only lost to me? Have I no bayes to crown it? No flowers, no garlands gay? all blasted? All wasted?
Not so, my heart: but there is fruit, And thou hast hands. Recover all thy sigh-blown age On double pleasures: leave thy cold dispute Of what is fit and not. Forsake thy cage, Thy rope of sands, Which petty thoughts have made, and made to thee Good cable, to enforce and draw, And be thy law,	10
While thou didst wink and wouldst not see. Away; take heed: I will abroad.	15
Call in thy deaths head there: tie up thy fears. He that forbears To suit and serve his need, Deserves his load.	20
But as I rav'd and grew more fierce and wild At every word, Me thoughts I heard one calling, Child!	25
And I reply'd, My Lord.	30

2.1	Analyse the speaker's state of mind in this poem. The speaker is a priest and he feels angry and rebellious. ✓ The poem explores the feelings of the poet feeling trapped. ✓ [Award 2 marks for any two relevant and distinct points.]	(2)
2.2	Discuss the allusion in line 7. It is a reference to pain and suffering ✓ and might refer to the image of Jesus Christ on the cross. ✓ [Award 2 marks for two relevant and distinct points.]	(2)
2.3	Explain the speaker's attitude towards his faith. His faith and his joy in his faith is lost to him. □ He describes his faith as being unfruitful. □ The only rewards he gets is pain and suffering. □ [Award 3 marks only if the speaker's attitude is discussed.]	(3)
2.4	Critically discuss whether this poem is convincing in its logic and persuasion? Provide reasons for your answer. Open answer. Candidates might refer to the 'quiet end' as a fitting sense of peace and restored faith to contrast with the speaker's rant throughout the poem.	(3)

Catalogue of the Educational Division of the South Kensington Museum , 1867 Designing Assessment for Quality Learning Claire Wyatt-Smith, Valentina Klenowski, Peta Colbert, 2014-03-10 This book brings together internationally recognised scholars with an interest in how to use the power of assessment to improve student learning and to engage with accountability priorities at both national and global levels It includes distinguished writers who have worked together for some two decades to shift the assessment paradigm from a dominant focus on assessment as measurement towards assessment as central to efforts to improve learning These writers have worked with the teaching profession and in so doing have researched and generated key insights into different ways of understanding assessment and its relationship to learning The volume contributes to the theorising of assessment in contexts characterised by heightened accountability requirements and constant change The book s structure and content reflect already significant and growing international interest in assessment as contextualised practice as well as theories of learning and teaching that underpin and drive particular assessment approaches Learning theories and practices assessment literacies teachers responsibilities in assessment the role of leadership and assessment futures are the organisers within the book s structure and content The contributors to this book have in common the view that quality assessment and quality learning and teaching are integrally related Another shared view is that the alignment of assessment with curriculum teaching and learning is linchpin to efforts to improve both learning opportunities and outcomes for all Essentially the book presents new perspectives on the enabling power of assessment In so doing the writers recognise that validity and reliability the traditional canons of assessment remain foundational and therefore necessary However they are not of themselves sufficient for quality education The book argues that assessment needs to be radically reconsidered in the context of unprecedented societal change Increasingly communities are segregating more by wealth with clear signs of social political economic and environmental instability These changes raise important issues relating to ethics and equity taken to be core dimensions in enabling the power of assessment to contribute to quality learning for all This book offers readers new knowledge about how assessment can be used to re engage learners across all phases of education
