Censorium William Mazzarella, 2013-02-25 In the world of globalized media provocative images trigger culture wars between traditionalists and cosmopolitans between censors and defenders of free expression But are images censored because of what they mean what they do or what they might become And must audiences be protected because of what they understand what they feel or what they might imagine At the intersection of anthropology media studies and critical theory Censorium is a pathbreaking analysis of Indian film censorship The book encompasses two moments of moral panic the consolidation of the cinema in the 1910s and 1920s and the global avalanche of images unleashed by liberalization since the early 1990s Exploring breaks and continuities in film censorship across colonial and postcolonial moments William Mazzarella argues that the censors obsessive focus on the unacceptable content of certain images and the unruly behavior of particular audiences displaces a problem that they constantly confront yet cannot directly acknowledge the volatile relation between mass affect and collective meaning Grounded in a close analysis of cinema regulation in the world's largest democracy Censorium ultimately brings light to the elusive foundations of political and cultural sovereignty in mass mediated societies

Education in Mother Tongue A. Babs Fafunwa, Juliet Iyabode Macauley, J. A. Funnso Sokoya, 1989 This book makes a case for the mother tongue as the medium of education for the first 12 years of the child's life It describes Nigeria's 6 Year Primary Project which taught experimental groups of students in their native Yoruba in varying degrees for their first 6 school years beginning in 1970 The book shows how the mother tongue education program was planned organized and implemented Chapter 1 traces the historical background of mother tongue education describing educational policy and the primary school system under British rule and the changes made thereafter Chapter 2 describes plans for the project including initial goals and funding Chapters 3 and 4 discuss curriculum development and production describing how panels developed materials for mathematics science social studies Yoruba and English instruction Chapter 5 describes teacher preparation including workshops and on the job training Chapter 6 describes instructional programs and objectives for each subject Chapter 7 examines problems encountered during the project Chapter 8 offers a comprehensive evaluation of the project including methodology and longitudinal achievement test results from the five sample groups that compare several variables including urban and rural settings Chapter 9 offers observations and recommendations for other countries noting literacy rate improvement and enhancement of the instructional language itself TESOL The Athenaeum, 1907 House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada.
