English Paper 0500 2013 June:

Palestine Is Throwing a Party and the Whole World Is Invited Kareem Rabie, 2021-03-29 In 2008 Palestinian Prime Minister Salam Fayyad invited international investors to the first ever Palestine Investment Conference which was designed to jump start the process of integrating Palestine into the global economy As Fayyad described the conference Palestine is throwing a party and the whole world is invited In this book Kareem Rabie examines how the conference and Fayyad's rhetoric represented a wider shift in economic and political practice in ways that oriented state scale Palestinian politics toward neoliberal globalization rather than a diplomatic two state solution Rabie demonstrates that private firms international aid organizations and the Palestinian government in the West Bank focused on large scale private housing development in an effort toward state scale economic stability and market building This approach reflected the belief that a thriving private economy would lead to a free and functioning Palestinian state Yet as Rabie contends these investment based policies have maintained the status quo of occupation and Palestine's subordinate and suspended political and economic relationship with Israel

Serving Library Users from Asia John Hickok, 2019-06-12 Asian populations are among some of the fastest growing cultural groups in the US While books on serving other target groups in libraries have been published e.g. disabled Latino seniors etc few books on serving library users of Asian heritage have been written Thus the timely need for this book Rather than a generalized overview of Asians as a whole this book has 24 separate chapters each on 24 specific Asian countries cultures of East Southeast and South Asia with a wealth of resources for understanding interacting with outreaching to and serving library users of each culture Resources include cultural guides both print and online language helps with sample library vocabulary Asian booksellers nationwide cultural groups professional literature and more Resources and suggestions are given for all three types of libraries public school and academic making this book valuable for all librarians The demographics of each Asian culture numbers and distribution plus history of immigration and international student enrollment is also featured As a bonus each chapter spotlights a US public school and academic library providing model outreach to Asian library users Additionally this book provides a detailed description and analysis of libraries in each of the 24 Asian countries The history development facilities conditions technology classification systems and more of public school and academic libraries are all discussed with detailed documentation Country conditions influencing libraries and library use are also described literacy levels reading cultures languages and writing systems educational systems and more Based on the author's 15 years of research and travels to Asia this work is a must have for all librarians

Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage Margaret J.-M. Sönmez, Maia Wellington Gahtan, Nadia Cannata, 2019-12-09 Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage presents essays by practitioners based in language museums around the world Describing their history mission and modes of display contributors demonstrate the important role intangible heritage can and should play in the museum. Arguing that languages are among our most precious forms of cultural heritage, the book also demonstrates that they are at risk of neglect and of endangerment from globalisation and linguistic imperialism. Including case studies from across Europe, North America, Africa and Asia, this book documents the vital work being done by museums to help preserve languages and make them objects of broad public interest. Divided into three sections, contributions to the book focus on one of three types of museums: museums of individual languages, museums of language groups, both geographic and structural, and museums of writing. The volume presents practical information alongside theoretical discussions and state of the art commentaries concerning the representation of languages and their cultural nature. Museums of Language and the Display of Intangible Cultural Heritage is the first volume to address the subject of language museums and as such should be of interest to academics, researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of museum and cultural heritage studies, applied linguistics, anthropology, tourism and public education. From Rhodesia to Zimbabwe Henry Wiseman, Alastair M. Taylor, 2013-10-22

From Rhodesia to Zimbabwe: The Politics of Transition studies the last phase of the transfer of power from illegal white minority control to freely elected majority rule in Zimbabwe. This book is divided into five chapters, the first of which describes the transition from Lusaka to Lancaster, including subtopics on the issues and results of commonwealth and constitutional conferences. This text then describes the implementation of the Lancaster House Agreement and the Monitoring Force. A chapter discusses the significance of the accredited observers in the transitional process and the elections. This text ends with the general observations on the transition process. This book will be interesting to historians, academicians, public administrators and students of politics. Psychological Distress among University Students Man Cheung Chung, Antonella Granieri, 2021-05-18

The Guest Editors would like to express their profound gratitude to Dr Isabella Giulia Franzoi for her valuable work in initiating this Research Topic and actively contributing to it. Jihadism, Online Discourses and Representations Rüdiger Lohlker, 2013

Jihadi online media try to mobilize, recruit and disseminate the messages of jihadi subcultures. Understanding the mechanisms and structures of the products of these online media is essential for understanding jihadism in general. Original research into visual representations of jihadi media outlets, the subtleties of jihadi videos, the specific ways jihadis use Islamic religious language into jihadi poetry and the ways jihadis stage their concepts in videos of kangaroo trials is presented in this volume. Jihadis as part of the imaginary of global media production is another aspect of representations of jihadism described in one of the contributions. Chambers Book of Facts, 2005
