Literacy in the Arts Georgina Barton, 2014-04-01 This book explores the many dialogues that exist between the arts and literacy It shows how the arts are inherently multimodal and therefore interface regularly with literate practice in learning and teaching contexts It asks the questions What does literacy look like in the arts And what does it mean to be arts literate It explores what is important to know and do in the arts and also what literacies are engaged in through the journey to becoming an artist The arts for the purpose of this volume include five art forms Dance Drama Media Arts Music and Visual Arts The book provides a more productive exploration of the arts literacy relationship It acknowledges that both the arts and literacy are open textured concepts and notes how they accommodate each other learn about and from each other and can potentially make education better It is when the two stretch each other that we see an educationally productive dialogic relationship emerge

Supporting Struggling Readers Barbara J. Walker, 2003 Barbara Walker believes that struggling readers like their more proficient counterparts are active learners in search of meaning In this revised and expanded edition of Supporting Struggling Readers she suggests that teachers can build on these children's strengths the things they can already do to help them broaden the strategies they use to make sense of text The book examines the phases of literacy and expands on the instructional strategies and assessment techniques that support children's reading development during each phase To draw together the practical teaching techniques that made the original edition of Supporting Struggling Readers so popular Dr Walker has added a chapter that explains how to incorporate these techniques into a framework of effective instruction that supports struggling readers as they progress through the developmental phases of literacy

Research-Based Practices for Teaching Common Core Literacy P. David Pearson, Elfrieda H. Hiebert, 2015 This one of a kind resource will be invaluable to every teacher educator every curriculum director and every literacy coach whether or not they must meet Common Core Standards Bringing together perspectives from literacy luminaries each addressing their specialty this book offers an accessible fund of rich practices in literacy instruction The book serves two purposes First it assembles a body of knowledge and wisdom from leading literacy researchers who each draw from a long career in the field to address topics of central importance to good literacy instruction Second these research to practice leaders connect established best practices and foundational research to the current challenge of instruction to meet Common Core Standards and other rigorous curriculum guidelines The contributors point out strengths of the Common Core as well as issues and oversights that educators should be aware of Closing chapters situate the Common Core within a continuum of educational policy and legislation Contributors Richard L Allington Monica T Billen Jay S Blanchard Robert Calfee Gina N Cervetti Michael F Graves John T Guthrie Elfrieda H Hiebert James V Hoffman Rosalind Horowitz Michael L Kamil Barbara Kapinus Richard Long Leigh Ann Martin Kimberly McCuiston James Nageldinger David Paige P David Pearson Timothy Rasinski S Jay Samuels Barbara Taylor Joanna P Williams Kathleen Wilson Pearson and Hiebert have long advocated for children in schools and this volume is no exception They and their chapter authors situate the CCSS within the historical and policy context in which it was written and support the literacy education community as we wrestle with the implications the standards have for research for teachers for teaching and for learning Sharon Walpole University of Delaware This book gets way beyond generalities and polemics about the Common Core taking a deep and measured dive into a wide range of essential topics within the standards I read a lot and I can't think of the last time I read anything about the CCSS as engaging and thought provoking as this Nell K Duke University of Michigan
