mid 1980s was a world of noise and color a blur of denim jackets cassette tapes rattling in backpacks and the smell of pencil shavings clinging to classroom air The hallways pulsed with laughter arguments and the squeak of sneakers on polished floors Teachers droned lockers slammed and students voices carrying secrets home before dinner It was not glamorous not cinematic the way we sometimes imagined but it was alive unshakably alive Most of us believed it would pass without much consequence just four years in between growing up and whatever came after But even in that churn of ordinary days something extraordinary was always waiting High school had a way of turning small things into milestones The note folded into perfect squares and slipped across a desk the Friday night spent at the movies the song on the radio that suddenly became the soundtrack to everything you were feeling Every glance carried possibility every gesture felt like rehearsal for some larger stage we did not yet understand Gemini is the state of becoming anchored and restless dutiful and daring scared of who I was and who I might yet be This is not the story of exams or GPAs or locker gossip This is the story of a girl her presence her absence and the hollow space in between It is the story of afternoons in the library of words written into journals of songs played until the tape wore thin It is the story of how the mid 1980s the music the fashion the restless energy of youth became the backdrop to something fragile and unforgettable Most of all it is the story of Gemini living between two lights my mother and Kelly One who gave me roots the other who gave me wings Together they shaped me in ways neither could have done alone And it was in their duality their quiet balance of permanence and impermanence that I began to discover who I was becoming
