Responsible Investment in Times of Turmoil Wim Vandekerckhove, Jos Leys, Kristian Alm, Bert Scholtens, Silvana Signori, Henry Schäfer, 2012-01-31 The SRI phenomenon is said to be entering the mainstream of financial intermediation From a fairly marginal practice promoted or campaigned for by NGO s and at odds with financial practice and orthodoxy it grew into well formulated policy adopted by a wide range of investors Academic literature on SRI has also boomed on the assumption that mainstreaming is taking place However little thinking has been carried out on questions specifically arising from this alleged mainstreaming This book addressed to those with a scholarly or practitioner s interest in SRI starts filling this neglected dimension Today one cannot ignore the difficulties of main stream financing The financial spheres are trembling globally in one of the worst crises since the 1930 s As a response to the crisis the intermediation of financial responsibility will undoubtedly be the subject of new regulation and scrutinizing This book looks into what these turbulences will imply for SRI In view of these circumstances one might or even should ask oneself whether the phenomenon was not an empty fad during the exuberant high of financial euphoria that came abruptly to an end with current financial crises To put it rather see are financial intermediaries that promote sustainability credible while it is obvious that some developments in financial intermediation predictably as some say were unsustainable Is this an opportunity for enhancing SRI because of the strength and superiority it has developed or will it disappear due to a return to financial myopia This book is the first to question the future of SRI in such a radical way Lemon-Aid Used Cars and Trucks 2009-2010 Phil Edmonston,2009-02-16 For the first time in one volume Phil Edmonston Canada's automotive Dr Phil covers all used vehicles packing this guide with insider tips to help the consumer make the safest and cheapest choice possible from cars and trucks of the past 25 years
