Humanity S Global Era A Dual Paradigm Change:

Humanities, Science, Scimat: From Two Cultures To Bettering Humanity Lui Lam, 2024-04-22 The humanities and social science are the disciplines that study human which are essential in helping us to understand ourselves and others and the world around us Since science is the study of everything in the universe and human is a material system consisting of the same atoms that make up other nonhuman systems humanities are part of science Thus understanding correctly what science is about will be helpful in making progress in the humanities To patch up the gap between the two cultures derived from these two branches of knowledge the best way is to recognize their common root in science and work through humanities science synthesis as advocated by Scimat the new multidiscipline proposed by the author in 2007 Furthermore raising the scientific level of the humanities which include decision making will help to make the world better Humanities Science Scimat details these issues consisting of three parts Part I is about Scimat and the new humanities history philosophy art Part II is on the origin and nature of science new insights on the life and works of selected scientists some thoughts on science communication popularization and case examples of science innovation all from the Scimat perspective While Parts I and II are short essays with no references with rare exceptions Part III are longer articles with full references that supplement Parts I and II Each essay article starts with a color picture They are all easy to read nothing technical In short this book contains the basic knowledge about the humanities and science that everyone should know The aimed readership is anyone from high school students and laypeople to the professors who are interested in what the humanities and science are about and how we can work together to achieve a better humanity

Moral Order/World Order H. Dyer, 1997-06-16 Moral Order World Order argues for the centrality of normative theory in the study of international relations Two themes develop each reflecting opposing pairs fact value is ought description prescription feasibility desirability The first theme concerns the epistemological framework provided by a normative account The second theme concerns the political conditions of knowledge which determine the role of different theories indicating the need for adaptation of traditional normative scholarship overcoming the separation of ethics from politics which has so far limited its role

Rethinking Human Evolution Jeffrey H. Schwartz, 2022-11-01 Contributors from a range of disciplines consider the disconnect between human evolutionary studies and the rest of evolutionary biology The study of human evolution often seems to rely on scenarios and received wisdom rather than theory and methodology with each new fossil or molecular analysis interpreted as supporting evidence for the presumed lineage of human ancestry We might wonder why we should pursue new inquiries if we already know the story Is paleoanthropology an evolutionary science Are analyses of human evolution biological In this volume contributors from disciplines that range from paleoanthropology to philosophy of science consider the disconnect between human evolutionary studies and the rest of evolutionary biology All of the contributors reflect on their own research and its disciplinary context considering how their fields of inquiry can move forward in new ways The goal is to encourage a more multifaceted intellectual environment for the understanding of human evolution Topics discussed include paleoanthropology s history of procedural idiosyncrasies the role of mind and society in our evolutionary past humans as large mammals rather than a special case genomic analyses computational approaches to phylogenetic reconstruction descriptive morphology versus morphometrics and integrating insights from archaeology into the interpretation of human fossils Contributors Markus Bastir Fred L Bookstein Claudine Cohen Richard G Delisle Robin Dennell Rob DeSalle John de Vos Emma M Finestone Huw S Groucutt Gabriele A Macho Fabrizio Mc Manus Apurva Narechania Michael D Petraglia Thomas W Plummer J W F Reumer Jeff Rosenfeld Jeffrey H Schwartz Dietrich Stout Ian Tattersall Alan R Templeton Michael Tessler Peter J Waddell Martine Zilversmit
