The French Atlantic Bill Marshall, 2009-01-01 The French Atlantic is a compelling and timely contribution to ongoing debates about nationhood culture and Frenchness that have come to define France and its diaspora in light of the diplomatic fracas surrounding the Iraq war and other mass cultural events With interdisciplinary navigation of fields nearly as diverse as the locations he explores Bill Marshall considers the cultural history of seven different French Atlantic spaces from Quebec to the southern Caribbean to North Atlantic territory and back to metropolitan France in this groundbreaking study of the Atlantic world Claude Chabrol Christopher Beach, 2020-01-27 Claude Chabrol 1930 2010 was a founding member of the French New Wave the group of filmmakers that revolutionized French filmmaking in the late 1950s and early 1960s One of the most prolific directors of his generation Chabrol averaged more than one film per year from 1958 until his death in 2010 Among his most influential films Le Beau Serge Les Cousins and Les Bonnes Femmes established his central place within the New Wave canon In contrast to other filmmakers of the New Wave such as Jean Luc Godard and Eric Rohmer Chabrol exhibited simultaneously a desire to create films as works of art and an impulse to produce work that would be commercially successful and accessible to a popular audience The seventeen interviews in this volume most of which have been translated into English for the first time offer new insights into Chabrol s remarkably wide ranging filmography providing a sense of his attitudes and ideas about a number of subjects Chabrol shares anecdotes about his work with such actors as Isabelle Huppert G rard Depardieu and Jean Yanne and offers fresh perspectives on other directors including Jean Luc Godard Fritz Lang and Alfred Hitchcock His mistrust of conventional wisdom often leads him to make pronouncements intended as much to shock as to elucidate and he frequently questions established ideas and normative attitudes toward moral ethical and social behaviors Chabrol s intelligence is far reaching moving freely between philosophy politics psychology literature and history and his iconoclastic spirit combined with his blend of sarcasm and self deprecating humor gives his interviews a tone that hovers between a high moral seriousness and a cynical sense of hilarity in the face of the world s complexities A Comprehensive Encyclopedia of Film Noir John Grant, 2023-09-21 Featuring rumpled PIs shyster lawyers corrupt politicians double crossers femmes fatales and of course losers who find themselves down on their luck yet again film noir is a

French Crime Fiction, 1945-2005 Margaret-Anne Hutton, 2016-04-22 In the first major study of representations of World War II in French crime fiction Margaret Anne Hutton draws on a corpus of over a hundred and fifty texts spanning more than sixty years Included are well known writers male and female such as Aubert Simenon Boileau Narcejak Vargas Daeninckx and Jonquet as well as a broad range of lesser known authors Hutton s introduction situates her study within the larger framework of literary representations of World War II setting the stage for her discussions of genre the problem of defining crimes and criminals in the context of the war the epistemological issues that arise in the relationship between World War II historiography and the crime novel and the temporal textures linking past crimes to the present Filling a gap in the fields of crime fiction and fictional representations of the War Hutton's book calls into question the way both crime fiction and the French theatre of World War II have been conceptualized and codified

Investigating Simenon Russell Campbell, 2022-09-21 For nearly a century the work of Belgian crime writer and psychological novelist Georges Simenon creator of Chief Inspector Maigret has captivated readers worldwide This investigation situates Simenon's work in its historical context and interprets it as a reaction to shifting gender relations in Western society Simenon's compelling narratives capture the anxieties of men whose patriarchal position was under threat in an era of insurgent feminist movements These concerns are also evident in Simenon's pervasive preoccupation with sexuality as well as his political stance that stems from his petit bourgeois upbringing This groundbreaking study includes interwoven commentary on all 191 novels Simenon published under his own name including several that have never been translated into English as well as a number of short stories and several pseudonymous works

Historical Dictionary of Film Noir Andrew Spicer, 2010-03-19 Film noir literally black cinema is the label customarily given to a group of black and white American films mostly crime thrillers made between 1940 and 1959 Today there is considerable dispute about what are the shared features that classify a noir film and therefore which films should be included in this category These problems are partly caused because film noir is a retrospective label that was not used in the 1940s or 1950s by the film industry as a production category and therefore its existence and features cannot be established through reference to trade documents The Historical Dictionary of Film Noir is a comprehensive guide that ranges from 1940 to present day neo noir It consists of a chronology an introductory essay a bibliography a filmography and over 400 cross referenced dictionary entries on every aspect of film noir and neo noir including key films personnel actors cinematographers composers directors producers set designers and writers themes issues influences visual style cycles of films e g amnesiac noirs the representation of the city and gender other forms comics graphic novels television and videogames and noir's presence in world cinema It is an essential reference work for all those interested in this important cultural phenomenon
