Les Films De Ma Vie:

Truffaut Antoine De Baecque, Serge Toubiana, 2022-02-23 One of the most celebrated filmmakers of all time Francois Truffaut was an intensely private individual who cultivated the public image of a man completely consumed by his craft But his personal story from which he drew extensively to create the characters and plots of his films is itself an extraordinary human drama Now with captivating immediacy Antoine de Baecque and Serge Toubiana give us the definitive story of this beloved artist They begin with the unwanted mischievous child who learned to love movies and books as an escape from sadness and confusion as a boy Francois came to identify with screen characters and to worship actresses Following his early adult years as a journalist during which he gained fame as France's most iconoclastic film critic the obsessive prodigy began to make films of his own and before he was thirty notched the two masterpieces The 400 Blows and Jules and Jim As Truffaut's dazzling body of work evolves in the shadow of the politics of his day including the student uprisings of 1968 we watch him learning the lessons of his masters Fellini and Hitchcock And we witness the progress of his often tempestuous personal relationships including his violent falling out with Jean Luc Godard who owed Truffaut the idea for Breathless and his rapturous love affairs with the many glamorous actresses he directed among them Jacqueline Bisset and Jeanne Moreau With Fanny Ardant Truffaut had a child only thirteen months before dying of a brain tumor at the age of fifty two Here is a life of astonishing emotional range from the anguish of severe depression to the exaltation of Oscar victory Based on unprecedented access to Truffaut's papers including notes toward an unwritten autobiography de Baecque and Toubiana's richly detailed work is an incomparably authoritative revelation of a singular genius

Stars and Stardom in French Cinema

Ginette Vincendeau, 2000-11-01 French cinema is second only to Hollywood in the number of its movie stars who have emerged to achieve international fame France is in fact arguably the only country other than the United States to have an international star system Yet these glamorous and charismatic stars differ from their U S counterparts in that they maintain more freedom to control their own images and often straddle both mainstream and auteur cinema Ginette Vincendeau a leading authority on French cinema analyzes the phenomenon of French film stardom and provides brilliant in depth studies of the major popular stars of the French cinema Max Linder Jean Gabin Brigitte Bardot Jeanne Moreau Louis de Funès Jean Paul Belmondo Alain Delon Catherine Deneuve Gérard Depardieu and Juliette Binoche This volume analyzes these stars images and performance styles in the context of the French film industry but also in relation to national culture and society In the country where Brigitte Bardot and Catherine Deneuve have modeled for Marianne the effigy of the Republic and left wing politicians have held up Jean Gabin as a role model Vincendeau examines the unusual relationship between French film stars and national identity Ginette Vincendeau is professor of film studies at the University of Warwick She is the author and editor of a number of books on cinema

Totally Truffaut Anne Gillain, Martin Scorsese, 2021

In Totally Truffaut author Anne Gillain answers two complex riddles How is experience imprinted into films What draws audiences to theaters François Truffaut like Fellini Bergman or Scorsese worked with an autobiographical material and Totally Truffaut follows the coded inscription of major life events in his films from his illegitimate birth to his passionate and doomed relationship with Catherine Deneuve The book focuses first on the process that embeds experience into fictions and more specifically into visual forms and patterns It also tries to define the mode of perception film language triggers in the spectator When entering a movie theater we expect perceptual pleasure Truffaut's creative work is devoted to distilling this drug to audiences an ambition central to the evolution of his style These two issues are closely connected and Totally Truffaut follows film after film their crisscrossing paths It also highlights the essential role several great actresses Jeanne Moreau Françoise Dorlé Isabelle Adjani Jacqueline Bisset Fanny Ardant or Catherine Deneuve played in the creation of the films

François Truffaut Annette Insdorf, 2020-08-31 Truffaut's films beautifully demonstrate the idea that a film can express its director as personally as a novel can reveal its author Moreover his development of a gently self-conscious visual style made him more than the entertainer he believed he was there is genuine artistry in his motion pictures He affected the course of French cinema indeed world cinema by blending auteurist art with accessible cinematic storytelling Unlike other New Wave directors such as Jean-Luc Godard Truffaut preferred idiosyncratic characters like the semi-autobiographical Antoine Doinel and universal emotions especially desire and fear to political tracts or didactic essays Instead of the elitism or self-indulgence that characterize much of European cinema Truffaut's movies were meant to touch people from different countries times and classes And they keep succeeding in this aim Truffaut's cinema remains a model of intimate reasonably budgeted sophisticated filmmaking that can still speak delightfully and profoundly to an international audience Long considered the definitive study of Truffaut's genius this revised and updated edition of François Truffaut includes fresh insights and an extensive section on the director's last five films Love on the Run The Green Room The Last Metro The Woman Next Door
