Balkan Fighters in the Syrian War Tanja Dramac Jiries, 2021-09-15 This book analyses the process of the recruitment of foreign fighters from the Western Balkans specifically Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo to Syria and Iraq from 2012 to 2015 Utilizing in depth semi structured interviews with foreign fighters and their families as well as a number of relevant stakeholders it answers the question of what were the processes and circumstances leading up to the departure of foreign fighters from Bosnia and Herzegovina and Kosovo and what informed their agency The author draws on the theories of social movement approaches more specifically contentious politics literature and utilizes the specific concepts of triggering mechanisms which refer to the enabling circumstances that make the radicalization and departure possible and pleasure in agency to elaborate on individual motivation The book also shows how a wider state fragility within the context of the post Yugoslav wars and the transitional period that never ended aided radicalization and how an incomplete process of post war transition can fuel the process of political and religious radicalization creating a wider enabling web for recruitment It will be of interest to students and scholars of Southeast European politics and foreign policy post war democratic transition security policy and radicalization more broadly
