

What No One Has Ever Seen

Questions on Part One of Act Three of The Crucible by Arthur Miller ANSWER KEY

1. Why does Giles think that Putnam is accusing Celia's wife?

He says, "Thomas Putnam is reaching out for land!" In other words, he believes that his wife is being accused because his neighbor wants their land.

2. Danforth says, "the entire contention of the state in these trials is that the voice of heaven is speaking through the children." Explain in your own words what he means when he says this and what the implications are for this decision.

What he means here is that all of the evidence for the trials comes from children. It also means that since the "state" believes that heaven is speaking through the children, their testimony has more weight than an average witness. This is sort of the opposite of a more normal trial, where a child would hardly be considered the expert witness.

3. What actions of Proctors are used against him?

He ripped the warrant and slammed the court when they came to arrest his wife, he hasn't come to church often, and he ploughs on Sunday.

4. How does Proctor try to defend the accused women?

He brings a testament to Rebecca, Martha Corey, and Elizabeth's character. Ninety-one people have signed to say that they have never seen evidence that the women are involved in witchcraft.

5. What does Danforth's mean when he says "This is a sharp time, now, a precise time—we no longer live in the dusky afternoon when evil mixed itself with good and befuddled the world"? Explain in your own words.

Student answers will vary, but essentially, his point is that good and evil and black and white. Someone can't be both or have some good and some evil.

6. What proof does Giles offer against Putnam?

He says that Putnam "is killing his neighbors for their land" because if they are executed, he is the only one who has the money to purchase the land that they give up. He also says that the father of one of the girls who spoke out against justice in the trials was given "a fair gift of land."

7. Explain the argument between Giles and Danforth. What does Danforth want? Why does Giles refuse?
