Suburbanistas Pamela Redmond, Pamela Redmond Satran, 2006-03-07 From the acclaimed author of Younger and Babes in Captivity a funny and moving novel about friendship fame and the fight for one suburb s future Greetings from New Jersey Stella Powers is an A list movie star who has just landed an Oscar worthy role and a hot new rock star husband when her mother s death brings her world tumbling down Floundering as her life becomes one tabloid horror after another Stella finds herself stuck in the New Jersey suburb she fled twenty years ago But Homewood is no longer the sleepy town she remembers housing prices are skyrocketing and glitzy new stores and people are moving in To Stella and her young daughter this is good news Wish you weren t here The bad news Stella s childhood best friend Mary Jean who married Stella s old boyfriend and raised four kids in Homewood can no longer afford to live there Mary Jean is determined to wrest back the town but needs Stella on her side The stakes for both women are high but how can these old friends reconnect after so much time has passed Or more importantly how can they not     Art as Information Ecology Jason A. Hoelscher, 2021-08-09 In Art as Information Ecology Jason A Hoelscher offers not only an information theory of art but an aesthetic theory of information Applying close readings of the information theories of Claude Shannon and Gilbert Simondon to 1960s American art Hoelscher proposes that art is information in its aesthetic or indeterminate mode information oriented less toward answers and resolvability than toward questions irresolvability and sustained difference These irresolvable differences Hoelscher demonstrates fuel the richness of aesthetic experience by which viewers glean new information and insight from each encounter with an artwork In this way art constitutes information that remains in formation a difference that makes a difference that keeps on differencing Considering the works of Frank Stella Robert Morris Adrian Piper the Drop City commune Eva Hesse and others Hoelscher finds that art exists within an information ecology of complex feedback between artwork and artworld that is driven by the unfolding of difference By charting how information in its aesthetic mode can exist beyond today's strictly quantifiable and monetizable forms Hoelscher reconceives our understanding of how artworks work and how information operates Life
