

A high-angle, top-down view of a massive, dense crowd of people. The majority of the individuals are wearing teal-colored shirts, while others are in white shirts. Many of the people in white shirts are wearing dark-colored hats with a red band. The crowd is packed closely together, filling the entire frame. Overlaid in the center of the image is the word "HUMAN" in a large, white, bold, sans-serif typeface. The letters are slightly transparent, allowing the colors and patterns of the crowd below to be visible through them. The overall scene conveys a sense of a large-scale event, festival, or gathering.

Planetary Cinema Tiago Luca, 2025-10-01 The story is now familiar In the late 1960s humanity finally saw photographic evidence of the Earth in space for the first time According to this narrative the impact of such images in the consolidation of a planetary consciousness is yet to be matched This book tells a different story It argues that this narrative has failed to account for the vertiginous global imagination underpinning the media and film culture of the late nineteenth century and beyond Panoramas giant globes world exhibitions photography and stereography all promoted and hinged on the idea of a world made whole and newly visible When it emerged cinema did not simply contribute to this effervescent globalism so much as become its most significant and enduring manifestation Planetary Cinema proposes that an exploration of that media culture can help us understand contemporary planetary imaginaries in times of environmental collapse Engaging with a variety of media genres and texts the book sits at the intersection of film media history and theory philosophy and it claims that we need this combined approach and expansive textual focus in order to understand the way we see the world

Earthscape Cheung, Chan-fai, 2013-01-01 Critical Humanism Ken Plummer, 2021-09-01 We live in a mutilated world and our humanity seems irrevocably damaged Many critics suggest we have reached the end of humanity In this challenging book Ken Plummer suggests that such claims may be premature instead what we need is a new transformative understanding of humanity Critical Humanism critically reflects upon and reimagines humanism for the twenty first century What is now required is a fresh wide ranging imaginary of an open worldly plural and caring humanity It needs to take a critical stance towards older often divisive ideas of what it means to be human while reconnecting to a wider understanding of the rich diversity of life in the pluriverse In an age of post and transhumanist turns Plummer provides a personal political and passionate call for thinkers researchers and activists to not turn their backs on humanism We need instead to create a vital new political imaginary of being human in a connected planet We simply cannot afford to be anti human or posthuman Restoring our belief in humanity has never been more important for edging towards a better world for all The Moving Form of Film Lúcia Nagib, Stefan Solomon, 2023 The Moving Form of Film Historicizing the Medium through Other Media charts the ways in which crossing borders between film and other arts and media can provide an encompassing inclusive and non teleological understanding of film history Evolutionary narratives of cinema have traditionally adopted the Second World War as a watershed that separates classical Hollywood films from modern European productions a scheme that subjects the entire world to the cinematic history of two hegemonic centres In turn histories of film as a technological medium have focused on the specificity of cinema as it gradually separated from the other art and medial forms theatre dance fairground spectacle painting literature still photography and other pre cinematic modes Taking an ambitious step forward with relation to these approaches this book focuses on the fluid quality of the film form by exploring an array of exciting and often neglected artistic expressions worldwide as they compare and interconnect films across temporal geographical and cultural borders By observing the ebb and flow of film s contours within the bounds of other artistic and medial expressions the chapters aspire to establish a flexible historical platform for the moving form of film posited from production to consumption as a transforming and transformative medium Encyclopedia of Human Geography Barney Warf,2006-05-16 Human geography in the last decade has undergone a conceptual and methodological renaissance that transformed it into one of the most dynamic and innovative of the social sciences Long a borrower of ideas from other disciplines geography has become a contributor in its own right and a spatial turn is evident in disciplines as diverse as Sociology Anthropology and Literary Criticism With more than 300 entries written by an international team of leading authorities in the field the Encyclopedia of Human Geography offers a comprehensive overview of the major ideas concepts terms and approaches that characterize a notoriously diverse field This multidisciplinary volume provides cross cultural coverage of human geography as it is understood in the contemporary world and takes into account the enormous conceptual changes that have evolved since the 1970s including a variety of social constructivist approaches Key Features Examines a range of themes characterizing different schools of thought and addresses long standing topics such as urban economic and medical geography as well as contemporary topics including feminism the social dimensions of GIS and the social construction of nature Explores many of the dualities that long characterized social science nature versus society the individual versus the social the historical versus the geographical consumption versus production and breaks them down using postmodern and poststructuralist approaches Illustrates how social and spatial structures draw upon people s daily lives which in turn structures their actions Looks at how globalization has manifested differently from place to place by discussing topics such as transnational capital international trade global commodity chains global cities international financial and telecommunications systems and how the global economy is reshaping geopolitics and governance Key Themes Cartography Geographical Information Systems Economic Geography Geographic Theory and History Political Geography Social Cultural Geography Urban Geography
